

the Bruns

On the less 'creative', although more enterprising, side of things is the Ad Department. The Brunswickan relies heavily on their advertising revenue to pay for the cost of printing and other materials, although a large sum of money does come from the Student Union. The sale of advertising space involves interaction with Fredericton's businessmen and is great experience towards life on the 'outside'. Both the Ad Manager Kathi Davidson and her Ad design team of Kevin 'pretty boy' Grant and Ernest 'where am I' Dunphy have had a very exciting and profitable year.

For those of you who enjoy comics and 'fantasy games', our Distractions Editor, Cal Johnson, can help you out. This section of the paper gives the latest in new or revised editions of comics presently in print.

And last but not least there is the wonderful world of Offset, which takes everything but the print and turns it into something printable, including photos, ads, posters, and graphics. This Department is headed by Tim MacKinnon (also Managing Editor) and his very talented assistant Kelly Maher (who also typed this article)!

After all of these departments have put forth their contributions the entire staff gets together on Wednesday night for the actual laying out of the paper. Last minute details are covered on Thursday afternoon and by 5:30 Thursday afternoon the paper is off to Covered Bridge Printing in Hartland. Early Friday morning the Bruns is delivered around the campus and the city courtesy of Moosehead Breweries and from then on the paper is history! Friday at 12:30 we all get together for a staff meeting at which newcomers are always welcome.

So, if you are looking for excitement and/or a sense of belonging - join the Bruns. The office is open all year round so there are no excuses. Get involved

Oh,, by the way, the Editor-in-Chief is Ken Quigley. We mustn't forget the boss!
