

Clean sweep

Scott Clack and Paul Lindsay sweep skip Bill Duck's stone in last week's Dixie Curling Club Consols playdowns. Duck's rink earlier defeated Joe Gurowka but lost to Jim Aziz in the final. Second Doug King, left, looks on. Divisional playdowns are in January.

Zulps leads Rattlers to victory

Team One of the Mississauga Rattlers Table Tennis Club continued to bounce along with a 6-4 victory over Toronto Vytis in the Toronto and District Table Tennis League. Modris Zulps had three victories and Kurt D'Endel two to lead the Rattlers. In third Division play, Team Five defeated Scarborough IBM 6-4. John Scholl scored three wins and John McKeating had two. Team Six played to a 5-5 draw with Scarborough Raiders as Roger Whittman and Tony Holmes each won two. Also in third division play, East York Masters dropped team Seven 6-4. Colleen Johnson won two for Mississauga. In fourth division play, Toronto Wazuri defeated Team Eight 7-3 as Becky

McKnight won two games for the Rattlers. Binbrook Optimists blasted Team Nine 10-0 in the other fourth division game. In the Fifth Division, Team 10 dropped the Picking Phantoms 6-4. Gene Wessel won two for Rattlers as did newcomer Wing Shun Chu. Green Chambers picked the other single win for the Rattlers.

Badminton ranking gather own Miss

Jolyon Lamwatt didn't lose any games last week, but he did lose first place in the overall rankings of the Mississauga Badminton Federation's Junior Singles League.

Lamwatt missed the week's action as he was replaced in the standings by Casey Moss of Etobicoke. Mike Tyers moved into second place and Lamwatt dropped to third. Mike Harrison is fourth, followed by Richard Brower, Kevin Trapp, Robbie Rogers, Tannis Harrison, Dave Nicholson and David Wells. Derek Brower is first in the under-17 rankings followed by Peter Willson of Appleton and Kathleen Davis.

Greenwood misses comeback attempt

Elsie Gaziuk of Humber Highlands defeated Jill Greenwood of Dixie Curling Club 8-0 in six ends to advance to the Southern Ontario Ladies Curling division playdowns Jan. 4-5 at Dundas Granite. Gaziuk, who advanced to the provincial finals in 1973, emerged undefeated from the district playdowns held at North Halton Golf and Country Club last week. Greenwood's rink was defeated in the first round of the playdowns but stayed in contention with wins over Dorothy Dingle's Mississauga rink 9-5, Nancy Clark of Dixie 7-4, Joyce Monahan of Oakville 7-4 and Joan Mustard of North Halton 12-9.

Old Dixie rinks make way for new

By CHRIS ZELKOVICH Dixie Curling Club, which has been dominated by veterans such as Joe Gurowka and Les Gareau the past few years, may have to make way for some fresh-faced newcomers shortly. In fact, it almost happened this year. The Bill Duck rink, which averages 20 years of age, came within one shot of upsetting veteran Jim Aziz in the bottom rung final of the club's Consols playdown Sunday night. Duck had already pulled off the upset of the year by defeating Brier veteran Joe Gurowka in an earlier round of the playdowns. "We're not down on ourselves," said Duck after losing 5-2 to Aziz. "This is our first year in men's competition and we've done pretty well to get this far. I'm still pretty happy about beating Gurowka. It was just a matter of two missed shots." The key missed shot came in the eighth end with Aziz leading 4-2. Aziz made a perfect take-out shot on his final attempt, but it still left Duck with a good chance at picking up two to tie the game. But Duck's final shot sailed through the house and Aziz scored one. That left Aziz with a three-point lead and virtually ruined any hopes of the rink had of winning the game and becoming the second rink to represent Dixie at the divisional playdowns in January. The Gareau rink is the other. The playdowns will take place at Dixie Jan. 6-8. Duck missed his final shot in the ninth end, when he could have picked up two points. "We're planning on staying together," Duck said. "All we really need is some experience. Paul Lindsay (third) is the experienced one and we're learning from him." Lindsay, at 23, is the oldest member of the rink. Lead Scott Clack is 18 and second Doug King is 20. Lindsay was the best shooter for Duck's rink in the final. Aziz and third Don Shane seldom missed for the winning rink. Dave Skelly and Paul Pick are the other members of the Aziz rink.

TOMAC tops

The 100 metre breaststroke event proved to be the strength of TOMAC swimmers on the weekend. Twelve-year-old Brenda Burwash, Brenda McMullen, 10, and Darren Harvey, 10, each won a gold medal to lead the TOMAC swimmers in a league meet against Oakville.

MBA's A division has Colour-ful look

Colour Your World remained the only unbeaten and untied team in the Men's Basketball League, as the league wound up the first third of its season. Gary Boguski scored 12 points to lead Colour Your World to a 49-46 win over Dixie. John Sportum scored 12 for the losers. Univac remained unbeaten by defeating Mercury Marine 91-68. Wayne Kofloye scored 17 for the winners while Vic Juzenas had 16 for Mercury.

In C division play, Sheridan dropped Clarkson 78-66, as Eric Atkinson had 16 and Oscar Paratori 19, for their respective teams. Pete's Delivery handed Erindale their eighth loss 82-80 as Norm Regimbal had 33 for Pete's. Doug Brandt scored 17 for the losers, who now find themselves in tie for last place with Pete's Delivery.

Miller Homes kept the A division record against the B teams unsullied by squeaking out a 60-56 win over School Uniforms. Duke Miller topped all shooters in the league with 34 while Jim Brown had 16 for School Uniforms.
