My said Bill would see he would have no future hopes and would become dangerous.

I mentioned that an opposition was mounted very much to your vitality - to the Senate -

But Campbell fought a fight with him & after an adjournment the two Senators persisted in the recommendation and so it was made.

I have sent you letter to Pope about the Cattle Slaughterings. I am glad they were slaughtered ^{263b} as it will teach our ²⁶⁰⁵ sheep owners not from greed to deal with tainted or doubtful animals.

I congratulate you on the result of the Cable Conference & have sent you your official reports to prepare a nice little Editorial for the Mail.

And some in a little brickyard will I think do us a great deal of good. The Senate see there is little hope just now of State and to Immigration ^(this is w)

I have given Longm
all the papers you sent me about your House on which he will report.
