

1875 should be paid before the expiration of the year 1876 with interest from the 1st of January 1876, and that the remainder should be paid with interest from the same date before the 1st of January 1880. No payment having been made, the Order in Council under which the sale was re-adjusted does not apply to the case, and the sale assumes its original position, that is, the lot is now charged with the balance of principal and interest still unpaid at the rate at which the land was originally sold, as communicated to Mr. Fielding through his Solicitors, Messrs. Moss, Fulenbidge & Barwick, of Toronto, on the 26th
