

God, and thank God that by these men things have happened and are happening on the World Stage today. May they continue to be for peace.

Again - One cannot live in the Dominion of Canada without realizing that there is unrest and dissatisfaction on the part of some, with conditions as they obtain in this Country. True, there are problems, Economic, Social and Political waiting to be solved and difficulties that need to be faced. In some parts there is sectionalism; in others there is Provincialism.

What we need in Canada today is a Spirit of Unity from Coast to Coast. How is this Unity of the Dominion to be maintained, but by men who have Faith in God and the Common weal; Men who have the vision of His Kingdom for this Great Dominion; Men whose lives are prompted by the Spirit of Goodwill and unselfishness; Men who are willing to risk all for God and King and Country. True, there will be at times a Red Sea to cross, BUT with men who have Faith in God and one another the happy goal can be reached "All things are possible to him that believeth".

The Church is the Teacher of Faith in the World.

"What God is in Eternity; What Christ became in time. It is the duty of the Church to make known to the minds of Men." Is the Church living up to this ideal? Is the Church lifting up Christ by a Faith in God that is drawing all men unto Himself? "I, if I be lifted up, will
