

C-49

Q-247 Would you say Trooper Adams is the type of soldier who when drunk is unruly?

A-247 No, sir, I would not.

Q-248 Would you say that Trooper Adams when sober is a quiet type of manhood, a backward type of fellow in the sense that he is not a good mixer with fellow soldiers?

A-248 No, sir, I have always found Trooper Adams a good soldier.

Q-249 As a mixer among men, aside from military qualifications as a soldier, I mean as a social member of the regiment, does he mix well with the men?

A-249 I can't state that. I have not had anything to do with him. I was always in another squadron or company.

Q-250 Was Trooper Adams ever in any serious trouble while at Mulgrave?

A-250 None that I can think of, sir.

RE-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR:

Q-251 On the occasions when you have seen Trooper Adams drunk, has he ever been so drunk that you would say he had no idea of what he was doing?

A-251 I just can't answer that, sir, whether I have seen him that drunk. I don't think I have ever seen him that drunk that he could never tell what he was doing.

QUESTIONED BY THE COURT:

Q-252 Are you related to Adams?

A-252 No, sir.

Q-253 Had Adams a pass on the night of the 15th of January, a late pass?

A-253 I can't state that, sir.

Q-254 Did Adams see you search his kit?

A-254 Yes, sir.

Q-255 Did Adams take objection or pass any remarks at all when you saw the money?

A-255 No, sir, I asked him first if it was all right to search his kit and he said yes.
