

The Furrower.

The marker is a simple attachment used in conjunction with any heel-cultivator or seeder, and may be fixed to the latter by means of a bolt and nut. It consists of a 1 x 2 in. wooden bar, twelve feet long, with grooves cut at various Making furrows for irrigating a root crop.