

XIX. The Treasurer of the Society shall, Duty of the Treasurer. if required, give security for the trust reposed in him; he shall keep an account of his receipts and disbursements, with the necessary vouchers, and at each Quarterly Meeting shall make report thereof to the Society, with the view of their being approved and minuted by the Secretary; he shall collect the Quarterly dues, arrears and fines at the Board, agréably to the statement furnished by the Secretary, and at the Quarterly Meeting in November submit all his accounts and vouchers to be reported on by a special Committee to be then appointed for that purpose.

XX. When the attendance of the Society Society to attend funerals of Members or Countrymen, when requested. is requested at the funeral of one of its Members, or of a Countryman, a stranger in the place, the President, or in his absence, one of the Vice-Presidents, shall issue orders for that purpose, and the Members shall attend accordingly, dressed in black, with crape on their hats, weepers, and a dark blue ribbon across their breast.