On motion of Mr. Stubs, Ordered that the Clerk of this House be directed to give the necessary directions for providing Seats, &c. for such Members as at present are not conveniently accommodated with the same.

The House then adjourned until to-morrow morning, at eleven o'clock.

THURSDAY, 1st February, 1821.

PRAYERS.

On motion of Mr. Johnston, resolved—" That an humble Address be presented to His Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor, praying that His Excellency will be pleased to direct that a full size Portrait of His late Majesty, King George the Third, be procured to be put up in the House of Assembly, and that the House will defray the expense attending the same."

Ordered that Mr. Johnston, Mr. Ritchie, and Mr. Wilson, be a Committee to wait on His Excellency with this Address.

The order of the day being read, the House according thereto resolved itself into a Committee of the whole House, on the consideration of His Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor's Speech.

Mr. Speaker left the Chair.

Mr. Peters took the Chair of the Committee.

Mr. Speaker resumed the Chair.

Mr. Peters, from the Committee, reported that he was directed to report progress, and to move for leave to sit again.

Ordered that the report be accepted and leave granted.

The House waited upon His Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor, with their Address in answer to His Excellency's Speech--and being returned, Mr. Speaker reported, that His Excellency was pleased to make the following reply thereto :

" Gentlemen,

" I have much satisfaction in receiving this Address, which assures me of your readiness to give attention to the objects recommended to your consideration, as well as all others tending to promote the improvement and welfare of the Country."

Mr. Chipman, pursuant to leave, brought in a bill, " to repeal part of an Act, intituled " An Act for the further regulation of Fisheries and for preventing their decay."

Which being read the first and second time, ordered that the same bill be committed to-morrow.

Mr. Campbell moved for leave to bring in a bill, " to repeal the Laws now in force regulating Pilots, and to make further regulations relating to the same."

Leave granted.

Mr.
