Junior City League

The Climbers will practice every Tuesday and Thursday evenings at Agricultural Park. About fifteen men are requested to turn out to-day, and from this squad, a lively team should be picked. Those requested to be out in uniform are: L. Buckborough, Manager; H. Guenther, A. Keely, R. Jackson, W. Hester, Jeff Whittaker, G Brown, M. Harley, J. Donohue, G. Kew, T. Hayes, F Sayles, M Barton 580 and Van Buskirk.

The Junior City League opens on July 1st and some lively games will be played, both in the morning and afternoon, at Agricultural, Recreation Greenwood and Tutela.

One of the most exciting games of the season was played at Tutela Park last evening between the Stars and Orioles. The game was featured by the airtight fielding of the infield, while Carpenter starred in the field for the Orioles. Baxter at Short, was easily the best for the Stars. Owing to some of the Oriole players being unable to play, weakened the team's chances. The game was fast and clean, but for poor umpiring, would have been much closer than the score ndicates. Final score 9 to 5. Batteries-Stars, Walters and Williams; Orioles-Taylor and Atfield.
