"La Mareschal"

Beautiful Story of Life and Work of Catherine Booth-Clibborn

Told by Capt. Chaplain MacKinnon At the Y. M. C. A. service on Sunday evening Capt. Chaplain MacKinnon of the 219th Battalion told the thrilling story of Mrs. Booth-Clibborn, who was Catherine Booth, eldest daughter of the late founder of the Salvation Army, and who herself had a wide fame on the continent of Europe as "La Mareschal."

Brought up in an intensely religious atmosphere, where the salvation of souls was the ruling passion, the very games of the Booth children were evangelistic meetings, and often some did pillow tied up, had to do the part of a reformed drunkard.

At fifteen Katie began to convert her friends; at seventeen she addressed immense audiences in London and at the great commercial centres of England. Her youth and girlhood lent added charm to her native eloquence, and R. C. Morgan describes her words as "falling like summer rain on the upturned faces of the people."

At twenty-two her father conceived the daring design of sending this slender and beautiful girl to Paris, not to perfect herself in art but to reclaim its slums. It was the faith that attempts great things and wins great things from God.

Alone she essayed the venture. Her passionate longing for the salvation of men, her winsome eloquence proved irresistible. Within a year a spacious building that held twelve hundred, was crowded out. Within a few years vast audiences of two and three thousand greeted her in the great French cities. Sometimes they came to scoff but even they remained to pray. She became a familiar figure in "Belgium" and Switzerland, and in the latter country by her unaided hand secured the principle of religious freedom.

Nor was it "the submerged tenth" that alone were touched by her marvellous gift. A Russian princess, a noted wit at European courts, had been caught by the spell, and in the palace at Petrograd acknowledged to the Czar himself the new influence that had come into her life from the christian preacher she had met at Paris.

Needless to say, no human gift could explain such a work. Its secret lay in the self-forgetting life that was hid with Christ in God.

Not a soldier—private or officer—dropped out of the Brigade Route March last Wednesday morning, though the men carried packs and rifles and the distance was ten miles. The result shows the proper spirit as well as endurance, and what training does towards making hardy soldiers.

AN OPEN LETTER

Results So Surprising That They Seem Marvelous Are Commending Mi-o-na The One Dependable Stomach Remedy.

Mrs. J. A. Pillow of North Street, Gananoque, Ont., says: "Mi-o-na is worth its weight in gold for quickly and permanently curing dyspepsia. I became so bad that I was unable to leave my bed. There was a constant burning in my stomach, I would belch gas every few minutes and could eat but very little, as the food would quickly ferment and make gas that caused a serious depression of the heart. Perspiration would break out all over my body. I would become so weak that I could not stir and would often fall on the floor in a helpless state. The pains in my stomach were terrible. I could find no position in which to sit or lie without suffering, and I was so nervous that the least noise affected me. Headaches were constant, I would become dizzy and spots would appear before my eyes, I had no ambition to get around and everything seemed to tire me. The first box of Mi-o-na gave me more relief than anything I had previously tried. The second box of Mi-o-na cured me. I am well and strong and I have not had always feel grateful to Mi-o-na for the cure given me and glad to recommend."

In the face of such evidence it is easy to understand why J. D. Clark feel assured in saying to you, money back if Mi-o-na fails to relieve either trivial or serious stomach trouble.

KING AND QUEEN VISIT CANADIAN FORESTRY BATTALION The King and Queen last week visited the men of the Canadian Forestry Battalion who are cutting down timber in the Clock-case Woods, near the Wheat-sheaf Hotel, Virginia Water. Their Majesties motored to the woods from Windsor and watched the felling of some huge trees by the lumbermen to whom they spoke much. They also watched the steam saws at work and were interested in a miniature railway which has been built to take the timber to the mills.—Canada.
