HANGED BY A MOB

Lynchers Chose a Court House Yard as the Scene of Their Operations.

Nicholasville, Ky., Feb. 6.—Tom Brown, a negro under arrest on the charge of having assaulted Miss Delia Howell yesterday, was hanged in the court-house yard to-day by a mob. Early to-day a mob surrounded the jail where Brown was confined and demanded the prisoner. The mob was finally placated by the statement from the officers that the prisoner would be taken before Miss Powell for identification. The officers were permitted to take the prisoner to the young woman's home, where she at once identified him. On the way back to the jail the mob suddenly closed in and secured the prisoner. Hurrying him to the court house yard, he was soon dangling from the limb of a tree.

TO UNSEAT A COUNCIL

Toronto, Feb. 6.—The threatened action to unseat the members of St. Thomas City Council at the instance of a number of electors was begun at Osgoode Hall this afternoon. When the Master in Chambers granted J. M. McEvoy, of London, Ont., on behalf of one Roberts, a fiat allowing applicants to serve notice of motion to set aside elections of the following persons as aldermen for the City of St. Thomas—G. A. Ponsford, T. Meek, R. McCully, C. F. Maxwell, R. Saunders, W. Frost, P. McEwen, L. Lutton, A. M. Hutchinson, M. Wimpenny, and J. Kirby.

A JOINT COMMISSION.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 6.—Senator Platt (N. Y.) to-day introduced in the Senate a joint resolution providing for the appointment of a joint commission, by the United States and Canada, to examine and report upon the diversion of the waters between the two countries. The resolution requires that each country shall appoint two members of the commission, and that it shall investigate "the condition and uses of the waters adjacent to the boundary line between the United States and Canada, including all the waters of the lakes and rivers whose waters flow by the St. Lawrence River to the Atlantic Ocean." The commission also is to report upon the effect upon the shores of these waters and the structures thereon by reason of the diversion of these waters from their natural channels, and upon the interests of navigation and further upon the measures necessary to regulate such diversion.

THE QUEBEC CARNIVAL.

Quebec, Feb. 6.—The feature of this afternoon's week of sports events was the carnival drive, which proved an immense success, and was witnessed by thirty or forty thousand people, who lined the streets along which it passed. As was expected, many of the allegorical cars were very fine and it is hard to say just who carried off the honors. Most spectators, however, awarded the palm to the commercial travellers, who mustered in great force in three fine cars, reproductions of railway coaches, preceded by the Levis Snowshoe Club's famous engine. All the snowshoe club cars were very fine.

Of four curling matches this morning, the ladies played three. The most exciting and hard fought was that between the Montreal III. and Lachine Ladies. When the sixteen ends had been played the score was 15 all. The Lachine ladies played a fine, plucky game, after being left far behind. On the extra end, however, they were one shot down.

The Governor-General and the Countess of Minto have issued invitations to a dinner on Friday evening, at 8 o'clock, at the Citadel.

ASSASSINATED

Bulgarian Minister of Public Instruction Killed in his Study.

Sofia, Bulgaria, February 6.—M. Kambecheff, the minister of public instruction, was assassinated to-day in his study, by a Macedonian, who pretended he wanted to present a petition. The assassin subsequently committed suicide by shooting himself. M. Kambecheff, who had been a student at the University of Sofia, was appointed to a professorship in a provincial town. Disappointed at not being assigned to a position at the capital, he had threatened to murder M. Kambecheff.

The police knew of the man's threats and were also aware that there was no doubt as to his sanity, but they allowed him to secure a private audience with M. Kambecheff and the minister's murder followed.

HOLDS HIMSELF UP.

Benton Harbor, Mich., Feb. 6.—Abraham Westervelt, treasurer of the Modern Workmen Lodge who was the central figure in a sensational "hold up" which occurred last Wednesday night on the principal street in the city, and which caused the officers many sleepless nights, has confessed to the prosecuting attorney that he held himself up. Over $300 lodge funds were made away with at that time. Westervelt was forced to his confession by the evidence which was tightening about him. He was always respected in the community.

CREEDAL REVISION.

Philadelphia, Pa., Feb. 6.—Rev. Dr. Wm. H. Roberts, the stated clerk of the last Presbyterian General Assembly, who is a member of the general revision committee, gave out the following statement at the conclusion of the afternoon session:—"The committee has decided tentatively to revise the doctrines of the third chapter of the confession by declaratory statements; also chapter X, section 3, on the salvation of infants; also chapter XVI, section 7, of good works. The other parts, chapter XXII, section 3, on oaths, and chapter XXV, section 6, by revision of the text. They appointed sub-committees to prepare a final form. To-morrow they will consider the brief statement of doctrine for popular use. It is understood that the sub-committees will make reports on Sunday. Beyond the above information, nothing was given out for publication.

A ROUGH EXPERIENCE.

New York, Feb. 6.—The steamer Chas. Noble Simmons, which sailed from Norfolk on Feb. 3 for this port with a cargo of coal, was towed into the harbor to-day by the steamer Indiana, with her captain disabled and the crew frost-bitten and suffering intensely from the hardships they had experienced. Almost from the start the Simmons encountered bad weather. The winds, which were from the north-west, blew hard, and was bitterly cold. The spray which flew over the decks and rigging covered everything with ice. On Monday the gale assumed hurricane force, and carried away the fore and main booms. Captain Green was knocked unconscious by the falling wreckage, and remained in that state until noon to-day. The mate navigated the schooner to a position off Fire Island, where she was anchored to ride out the gale. Then the mate became incapacitated from his sufferings and the crew were prostrated by the intense cold, besides having their hands and feet frost-bitten. The steward was the only person on board able for duty. The schooner remained at anchor with the wreckage strewn about the decks until noon yesterday, when the steamer Indiana hove in sight and came to her assistance.

BIG ROBBERY

It is Recalled by the Death of the "Napoleon of Crime" in London.

Chicago, Feb. 6.—Adam Worth, alias Henry J. Raymond, and known as "the Napoleon of crime," is dead in London, and with the announcement of his death to-day all the details of the recovery of the celebrated Gainesborough painting were made public in Chicago.

When the famous picture was restored to its owner in Chicago last April there were many surmises as to the medium of its return. Wm. A. Pinkerton, who made the formal announcement of the recovery of the painting, refused to confirm or deny any of the stories. Now that Worth is dead, Mr. Pinkerton can speak. Worth gave him written permission to reveal the Gainesborough secret after he had died.

Wrapped in oiled cloth the canvas was handed over to C. Moreland Agnew one morning last April in Chicago by Worth, who twenty-five years before had cut the painting from its frame in the Agnew galleries in London.

The return of the painting took place in Mr. Pinkerton's private office. The owner of the picture hurried back to London for fear the United States authorities would demand a custom duty on the picture. It was while in London that Worth conceived the idea of carrying off the Gainesborough picture. Assisted by his partner, he climbed into the Agnew gallery one night, cut the painting from its frame and carried it away. Worth owned a steam yacht and the canvas was taken aboard and concealed there until he sold the vessel to Lord Lonsdale. Then he took the picture to Paris and finally brought it to America, where it was concealed for fifteen years.

Mr. Pinkerton had known Worth for 30 years. Two years ago Mr. Pinkerton received a telegram telling him that an important letter was at his home. The letter was from Worth, who asked an interview. This was granted, and Worth said he was going to die and wanted to turn over the Gainesborough picture in order that his two children, who were being educated in a convent, might enjoy the proceeds. Through a hitch, the picture was not recovered at that time. Worth returned to London and early last spring he fulfilled his bargain.

CORRECTION.

The Planet regrets the insertion of the 29th January last, of the marriage of Miss Lee, of Raleigh, to Mr. Bert Newkirk. No such marriage took place. The Planet in good faith published the announcement on the strength of a written statement handed in by a woman, who knew it was not true, and who ought to have more sense. The father of Miss Lee promptly followed the matter up and turned the table on the smart Alecks concerned, by making them, through his solicitor, amply apologize, and pay the solicitor's costs. Had not Mr. Lee taken action The Planet would have done so, as we are determined to stop such contemptible conduct. Miss Lee is one of the most estimable young ladies in Raleigh, and we greatly regret the pain and annoyance inflicted upon her.

Neighbors forced an entrance and found one child, a seven-year-old boy, dead. The mother and two other children are still unconscious to-night and may not recover. Shirley was away on his way.

A TEST EXPERIMENT

Peculiar Power Possessed by a New Medicine.

Of new discoveries there is no end, but one of the most recent, most remarkable and one which will prove invaluable to thousands of people, is a discovery which it is believed will take the place of all other remedies for the cure of those common and obstinate diseases, dyspepsia and stomach troubles. This discovery is not a loudly advertised, secret patent medicine, but is a scientific combination of wholesome, perfectly harmless vegetable essences, fruit salts, pure pepsin and bismuth.

These remedies are combined in lozenge form, pleasant to take, and will preserve their good qualities indefinitely, whereas all liquid medicines rapidly lose whatever good qualities they may have had as soon as uncorked and exposed to the air.

This preparation is called Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, and it is claimed that one of these tablets or lozenges will digest from 300 to 3,000 times its own weight of meat, eggs and other wholesome food. And this claim has been proven by actual experiment in the following manner: A hard boiled egg cut into small pieces was placed in a bottle containing warm water heated to ninety-eight degrees for blood heat, one of these tablets was then placed in the bottle and the proper temperature maintained for three hours and a half, at the end of which time the egg was completely digested as it would have been in a healthy stomach. This experiment was undertaken to demonstrate that what it would do in the bottle it would also do in the stomach, hence its unique and weak digestion. Very few people are free from some form of indigestion, but scarcely two will have the most from distress after eating, bloating from gas in the stomach and bowels, others have acid dyspepsia or heartburn, others have palpitation or headaches, sleeplessness, pains in the chest and under the shoulder blades, extreme nervousness, as in nervous dyspepsia, but they all have some cause, failure to properly digest what is eaten. The stomach must have rest and assistance, and Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets give it both, by digesting the food for it and in a short time is restored to its normal action and vigor. At the same time the Tablets are harmless so that a child can take them with benefit. This new preparation has already made many astonishing cures, as for instance, the following:—

After using one package of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets I have received such great and unexpected benefit that I wish to express my sincere gratitude. In fact it has been six months since I took the package and I have not had one particle of distress or difficulty since. And all this in the face of the fact that the best doctors I consulted, told me my case was incurable, as I had suffered twenty-five years. I distributed half a dozen packages among my friends here who are very anxious to try this remedy.

Mrs. Sarah A. Skeels, Lynnville, Jasper Co., Mo. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are sold by druggists everywhere at 50 cents for full sized packages. A little book on Stomach Diseases mailed free by F. A. Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.

WENT ASTRAY

A Local Philanthropist Who Misapplied Money Which he had Collected.

Drayman Badgely lost a horse by reason of it falling and breaking its leg. Dan. Youmans worked for Mr. Badgely and he sympathized with his employer, a poor man. Dan. was so sympathetic that he secured a petition and circulated it, seeking to allure money from the pockets of the philanthropic residents of this city. Dan. didn't only seek but he "did." Not being personally acquainted with the wealthy residents, he secured the assistance of Mike McGavin for four days at the remuneration of $1.50 per diem.

Mr. Badgely had no objections to the petition being circulated, but, after some $50 had been collected and he had only received $15.00, he felt that he was not being treated fairly and laid an information against Youmans, charging him with stealing. The man was arrested by P. C. Dezellia last night, and he appeared before Judge Houston this morning. He wasn't sure whether he preferred to have Judge Bell or Judge Houston try him, and Judge Houston remanded the man till Monday to give him time to think the matter over. The three dollars drawn into using the money collected by the influence of some other fellows on the market. He wanted to get out of the trouble as easy as he could, because, like lots of other men, he was led into it.

Judge Houston—Give the Chief the names of those who induced you to steal, that they may be dealt with. A man who induces to theft is as guilty as the man who steals. Youmans gave the following account as to what he had done with the money collected. For his own use he had spent $22 as follows: Rent $5, barrel of flour $4, wood $4.75, groceries $4, treating $4.25. The item $4.25 for treating had been spent in making himself a good fellow so as to get the people to give more readily. Six dollars had been paid McGavin for helping him to beg, and $16.00 had been paid Badgely, and he still had $3 on hand. The three dollars was paid to Badgely this morning. Geo. Stephens signed to contribute a dollar, but he wouldn't pay it to Youmans. He paid it to Badgely himself. Youmans is a married man with a family. He was unable to get security for bail and will spend Sunday in jail.
