Alfred Terrier, of Green River, Madawaska, accidentally shot and killed himself while enroute to a lumber camp on the Restigouche last week. He was travelling on a tote road, carrying a loaded rifle, and had the misfortune to trip and fall. The weapon was discharged the bullet piercing his right lung, killing him almost instantly.

Mr. M. S. Stewart, of Neguac, was in town on Thursday with the head of a fine buck that was shot by him on Tuesday. It was an exceptionally large deer, weighing 240 lbs. when dressed, and the antlers are large and wide. They have nine points, and have a spread of 21 inches. Mr. Stewart is having the head mounted.—World.

James Robinson Esq, the Millerton lumberman and his son Weldon went to Mr. Robinson's lumber camps on the Dungarvon last week. They may do some hunting while in the woods. Mr. Robinson's camps, fifteen miles inland, are connected with Doaktown by telephone, an instance of the enterprise shown by him in conducting his business.

Twenty-two inches of snow fell last week at Belledune, a small village between Bathurst and Campbellton. The storm was very bad in that particular vicinity, but Belledune seemed to be the centre of the snow-fall, and on the platform of the I. C. R. station there this morning there was snow to the depth of twenty-two inches. At Campbellton, only a very slight snow-fall was experienced, so the trainmen reaching here to-day report, while there was a snow-fall all along the line from that point to Moncton.

At a meeting of the session of St. James' church held last Wednesday evening it was decided to hold a congregational meeting on Friday evening Nov. 23rd to call a minister to take charge of the congregation. A number of candidates have been heard, and it is probable that one will be called, although more candidates may be asked for.

Tea was early recognized by the English (the greatest tea-drinkers amongst Western people) as an efficient aid to fancy and literary invention, and its capacity for maintaining serenity of spirits and temper is also admitted, but the article must be the best of its kind and to get the best you have to purchase it in the sealed lead packets of the "SALADA" Tea Co.

A kindly disposed person, desiring to assist Mr. Frank McNeil, who was recently hurt in Hicksons mill, started a subscription list and obtained a sum of money. When Mr. McNeil's family heard of it they at once put a stop to further subscriptions and asked that the sum already collected be returned to the subscribers as they did not feel like accepting money obtained in this way.

Rev. J. G. Colquhoun, presided at the annual business meeting of the Presbyterian congregations of Millerton, Chelmsford and Derby, held at Millerton recently. Reports submitted showed the various organizations in connection with the church work to be in an encouraging condition. Generous contributions had been received during the year and the debt was decreased. The recommendation from the trustees that the sum of $50. be added to the pastor's stipend was adopted.

COMMISSIONERS MET LAST WEEK.

Alms House Commissioner Held Annual Meeting at Chatham.

The annual meeting of the Northumberland Co., almshouse commissioners was held Tuesday at Chatham. In the keepers report it was stated that at present there were thirty inmates in that institution. Four tons of hay, four tons of oats, fifty-five barrels of potatoes, twenty barrels of turnips, 500 heads of cabbage, besides a quantity of other vegetables, were raised on the farm last season. Commissioners Underhill, Connors and Vinneau, appointed to examine the building, clothing and premises etc., reported everything to be in a satisfactory condition. After other routine business resolutions of condolence were adopted over the death of George Burchill, Jr., of Nelson, and John Graham, of Millerton.

At the annual meeting of the Almshouse Commissioners held at Chatham on Nov. 6th the following resolutions of condolence were adopted:—"Whereas it has pleased Almighty God in His infinite wisdom to remove from our midst, by the deaths of Geo. Burchill, Jr., of Nelson, and John Graham, Millerton, worthy citizens and esteemed friends. Therefore resolved—That we bow in submission to the Divine will we most deeply regret their demise, and further resolved—That by the decease of our late friends and colleagues our Board has lost active and zealous members and community honest and upright citizens, and that we extend to the bereaved families, in this their hour of sorrow, our heartfelt sympathy with them in the loss which they have sustained."

P. HENNESSY, Chairman. D. P. MacLACHLAN, Sec'y.

On Friday evening, Oct. 26th, about seventy friends of Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Anslow gathered at their home at North Sydney Jct., in honor of their fifteenth anniversary of their marriage.
