LIVELY TIME LOOKED FOR.

Reduction Question Before the Committee To-night.

Churches a Unit in Supporting Citizens' Campaign Committee.

Board of Works Will Ask For $89,000 This Year.

To-night in the City Council chambers the fight for a reduction of the number of licenses in Hamilton to fifty will be begun before the Markets' Committee. The temperance people and hotel men will be there in strength and a lively time is expected. Mayor McLaren says he hopes no personalities will be indulg-ed in and that the speakers will be forc-ed to confine themselves to the merits of the question. He would like to see every the question. He would like to see every aldermen who is interested in the matter of reduction and who desires informa-tion on the subject, present to-night. Nearly every church congregation or the official bodies of the churches passed

The committee to morrow night will pass estimates calling for an expenditure of $89,000, but there is not much hope of the Council granting that much. It is likely the aldermen will have a private conference as usual to fix the appropriations for the various departments.
