

CHANGED IN AN INSTANT.

The Convertible Coat That Has Made Good

The "ADJUSTO" stands forth as the ONE PERFECT Convertible Overcoat—the coat without a flaw! No hand-somer military collar, motor or storm coat than the "AD-JUSTO" was ever designed, and in an instant it can be changed to as smart and stylish a Chesterfield—the regulation dress coat—as was ever put on anyone's back.

THE "ADJUSTO"

is OUR exclusive PATENT and can be had only from us. IS OUR excusive PATENT and can be had only from us. There's a heap of swagger, handsome materials to select from, and remember, the genuine "ADJUSTO," made to your individual measure doesn't cost a penny more than the poor imitations offered "ready made." We're working overtime to keep up with the demand. Better enter your order to day.

NEW RULES FOR THE BOXING GAME.

Joe Cheynski Suggests a Set to Govern the Jeffries-Johnson Fight-Claims That the Old Rules Are Out of Date.

Joe Choynski, one of the cleverest heavyweights in the ring a dozen years ago, says the proposed fight between Jeffries and Johnson should be governed by a set of revised rules, and the head of the purse. he has drawn up a code which he thinks will be acceptable to both men, a sfololws:

1, To be a fair stand-up boxing match in a 24-foot ring, or as near that size as practicable.

No wrestling, hugging, heeling, but-ting or gouging allowed.
 The rounds to be of three minutes' duration and one minute between

4. If either man is knocked down he must get up unassisted inside of ten seconds, the other man meanwhile to move about ten feet away, so as to give the man who is down a chance to arise. When the fallen man is on as feet the round is to be resumed and continued until the three minutes have expired. If the man who has been knocked down fails to be on his feet inside of the ten seconds allowed the referee shall give his decision in favor of the other man.

game for more than litteen minutes, True, Argos also beat Ottawa for half their game at Toronto. But where was Captain Jack Wildams when they were doing so? On the side lines holding a long distance argument with the Argonaut rooters. Where was Stronach? Acting as touch-line judge. No, Argos are a good young team, and if they train on nails and Rosedale hay and take Joe Wright's advice to heart they may be able to beat Tigers in a few years. But not just now. Tigers should run up a big score on the Oarsmen on Saturday, unless Ben Simpson leaves his box of tricks at home. Everyone in Ottawa, however, is hoping for an Argonaut win, and the bulletin boards here will be closely watched while Argos and Tigers are fighting it out on the Rosedale gridfron.—Ottawa Citizen.

Toronto Telegram: Watch those Argonauts when they bump up against the Tigers on Saturday. The Oaamen are practising steadily every day, and it would not surprise a great many of the local fans if they were to trin the Hamilton team. Down in Ottawa the followers of the Rough Riders are fairly living in the hope that they will win, and Montreal, too, is pulling for a Toronto victory.

real, too, is pulling for a Toronto victory.

For a while it looked as though the club was going to have some trouble in managing the crowd at the game to-morrow. They tried to obtain the services of a squad of police, but were told that while there would be a number of "bluecoats" on the grounds, they would not do anything towards clearing the field of spectators. The difficulty was arranged, however, by securing a number of soldiers from the Fort to patrol the grounds.

I make no secret of the fact that I am angry with the average canadian hockey player for his grasping and unreliability, and I think one year off the Pittsburg payroll may do more good, and learn him to be more decent by the time we form the league which will be put in operation next fall. Of course, we expect to go to Canada for our players at that, time, and we will get them. They will be glad to come."

Hamilton paper: "When next the Tiges and Ottawas come together, it would be well as a measure of precaution to have the Ottawa players searched for steel knuckles and concealed 'billies."

Ottawa paper: "Marriott choked Stronach while the latter was on the ground or Isbister jumped on the same player's head in last Saturday's match. When the next game in Hamilton is played, some kind of defensive weapon will be needed by the locals."

Give us fine weather, said Joe Wright of the Argonauts last night and with a team playing to their Montreal form, the Tigers will have their toughest proposition of the season to-morrow at Rosedale. Our boys are in the best of shape and everyone is confident of trimming the Tigers to-morrow.

For a team that was overwhelmed by a 30-5 score, this Ottawa bunch are certainly making a let of noise. When a Toronto team got trimmed by a score like that even the players would admit that they were beaten.

Stronach, of the Rough Riders, is all cut up over the imputation that he played rough football at Hamilton, and between sobs he avers that he'll never play the game in Canada again, so there. And while everybody will sympathize with the ladylike feelings of the Ottawa star, they must remind him of the old saw agent a man and the of the old saw anent a man and the company he keeps. For somebody in that Ottawa bunch surely did try to damage Hamilton's own little Benny Simpson.—Toronto Telegram.

COBALT STOCKS.

The mining market continued to hold strong vesterday in Toronto without any decided movement. There was some buying of Gifford, said to be due to the finding of two nice strineers at 200-foot level, and the stock went up to 24, closing a fraction lower. Rochester was fairly active, selling around 17 1-2, and Beaver and Sliver Leaf also showed some life. The former is said to be ready to make a shipment and an advance sood demand on the prospect of a good dividend to-day, which is expected to send the stock still higher. Foster and Nancy Helen are renorted to be working in some exceptionally good ore and are said to be good buys at present prices. There is no market influx at present, however, and no strong advance is expected.
