Poems, Pictures and Songs. It takes all kinds of people to make up a world and all kinds of poetry te make up a world literature. Despite the efforts of the critics to lay down definite canons of judgment for the literary, pictorial and musical arts most of us continue to like a peem, a picture or a song for no better reason than because we like it. It appeals to us, and if it does that it is for us a true peem, picture or song. Whether true poem, picture or song. Whether it is to be classed among the great products of art is another question. That depends upon the universality and permanence of the appeal fit makes. Current I thereive makes.-Current Literature.
