The Cheese Trade The Montreal Witness, of the 1st inst. ear up to date has been 123,658 boxes, arge proportion of this increase may be on doubt, to a better demand which has caused earlier deliveries, and to the rates of freight, which, though high here, have been lower than at New York. Averaging the box at 60 pounds, there will be 7.420,000 pounds of cheese worth, at 11 cents per pound, $825,000.

As all that is shipped here is of Canadian make, it is evident that cheese is now wn on by the makers at thirty nus giving them time to ship and e makers drafts on them with GODERICH, Aug. 13, 1873. meet the makers' drafts on them with the proceeds of drafts on their consignces in Britain.
