Killed Wife By a Mishap.

Grief Stricken Husband Then Committed Suicide.

Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., Oct. 15.—Killing his wife accidentally in the bush while hunting partridge, Thomas Leishman, farmer, sixty years of age, residing near Iron Bridge, committed suicide. The body of Leishman was found lying across that of his wife. Leishman had placed the muzzle of the shotgun to his breast and discharged the gun by placing the ramrod against the trigger. Deceased and his wife left home Saturday afternoon and went to the bush. Mrs. Leishman carried a shotgun and her husband a rifle. The woman had been shot by the rifle and a dead partridge was found near by showing that the husband had shot it and apparently the same bullet had killed his wife.

Serious Accident

Yesterday Hon. R. Watson, Colonial Secretary, had a wife from Northern Bight saying that Wm. Peddie, of Little Heart's Ease, Random South, while storing hay fell from the loft of a mill there and became caught in the shafting. He received terrible injury, his body being badly cut and bruised while his legs were broken. He was treated by a doctor but it is feared he cannot recover.

If Headachy, Bilious, Constipated and Nervous Take Delicious "Syrup of Figs."

A harmless cure for sick headache, for biliousness, for a sour, gassy, disordered stomach, for constipation, indigestion, coated tongue, sallow complexion—take delicious Syrup of Figs. For the cause of all these troubles lies in a torpid liver and sluggish condition of your thirty feet of bowels.

A teaspoonful of Syrup of Figs to-night means all poisonous waste matter, the undigested, fermenting food and sour bile, gently moved on and out of your system by morning, without griping, nausea or weakness. It means a cherry day to-morrow—many bright days hereafter.

Please don't think of gentle, effective Syrup of Figs as a physic. Don't think you are drugging yourself; for delicious figs, senna and aromatics can not injure anyone.

This remarkable fruit preparation is a wonderful stomach, liver and bowel cleanser, regulator and tonic, the safest and most positive ever devised. The day of violent purgatives, such as calomel, pills, salts and castor oil is past. They were all wrong. You got relief, but at what cost! They acted by flooding the bowels with fluids, but these fluids were digestive juices. Syrup of Figs embodies only harmless, laxatives, which act in a natural way. It does what right food would do—what eating lots of fruit and what plenty of exercise will do for the liver, stomach and bowels.

Be sure you get the old reliable and genuine. Ask your druggist for the full name, "Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna," prepared by the California Fig Syrup Company. Hand back, with scorn, any Fig Syrup imitations recommended as "just as good."

CHURCH POINT, July 31, '08.
Blacking & Mercantile Co's, Ltd., Amherst, N.S.
Dear Sirs,—Nearly one year ago I had my first order of "Mathieu's Syrup" from you. It was not known in this country, and I gave samples to several families whom I knew would use it. After a few weeks I began to have a call for it, and trade has increased wonderfully since. I have not the least doubt but that it will soon be the best selling remedy for coughs, colds, etc., on the market. In my store here sales are good, and our people ask for it. Several stores in this county now keep it in stock and report sales increasing. I have bought from you since August 16th, 1907, 4 Gross and have only three dozen of hand at this date, and which I am holding for retail trade in my store.
Yours truly,
LOUIS A. McLANSON.

Klark-Urban Co.

To another crowded audience last night the popular Klark-Urban Co. presented "Raffles," whose history must have read, who was a thief and whose predilection it was to steal not altogether as much from perversity as from a pure love of the excitement incident thereto. The production of the drama necessarily involves some very exciting situations and startling climaxes and seldom have we seen the company to better advantage. Klark as Raffles, was inimitable and Charles Archer as Bedford the amateur detective, gave a splendid exhibition of the high class histrionic talent he undoubtedly possesses. The different roles impersonated by the other gentlemen and ladies of the company were highly pleasing and the audience loudly and frequently applauded. The specialties last night were unusually good. The Royalty trio in the "Littigant" feature was fine; Bill Webb's comic songs and dances as usual kept the audience laughing while he held the stage and Al Canton's jugglery and swing magic were excellent. The company will present "Northern Lights" on Monday night, a play which should draw a large crowd.

The Police Court.

Four drunks were discharged. A drunk for the 5th time was fined $2 or 7 days. A drunk who was conveyed to the station in a cab was discharged on payment of cab hire. A man who was convicted of loose and disorderly conduct on the public streets was fined $2 or 7 days. Three truckmen were summoned for cruelty to horses. One was fined $2 or 7 days; the second, $5 or 14 days, and the third was discharged on payment of costs. These were cases in which the men were summoned for riding on the cart when their horses were drawing loads. The men were charged with having the opinion of the court on the matter and the judgment was that it was cruelty under the law as it is at present to ride on the cart when the horse is drawing a load.

By the schr. "Little Pearl", which arrived here yesterday, we learn that one of Mr. Manuel's schooners of Exploits, while coming up the French Shore in Sunday's gale had a hard time of it. She carried away all her sails but managed to get around Cape Fogo. When beating up near White Point she was swept in there, and went ashore. The crew of the "Little Pearl" boarded her and helped her crew to get her off when crippled, along to Seidom to get new sails.

MINARD'S LINDENT CURE BURNS, Etc.

Laxative for Old People—"Cascarets."

What glasses are to weak eyes, Cascarets are to weak bowels—a 10-cent box will truly amaze you. Most old people must give to the bowels some regular help, else they suffer from constipation. The condition is perfectly natural. It is just as natural as it is for old people to walk slowly. For age is never so active as youth. The muscles are less elastic. And the bowels are muscles. So all old people need Cascarets. One might as well refuse to aid weak eyes with glasses as to neglect this gentle aid to weak bowels. The bowels must be kept active. This is important at all ages, but never so much as at fifty. Age is not a time for harsh physics. Youth may occasionally whip the bowels into activity. But a lash can't be used every day. What the bowels of the old need is a gentle and natural tonic. One that can be constantly used without harm. The only such tonic is Cascarets and they cost only 10 cents per box at any drug store. They work while you sleep.

Spellbinder.

Ten thousand gifted fellows who bind us with a spell, are working jaws and bellows, emitting roar and yell; these gifted language toters do naught, the long year through, but lecture to the voters and tell them what to do. They keep no wheels a-turning, they toll not, they don't spin; they keep no forges burning—they merely wag the chin. They plow no useful furrow, they fill no butter kegs; you'll never see them burrow beneath the barn for eggs. They do not weld or solder, or work in potter's clay; they bring no corn or fodder to town on market day. They fatten up no porkers, no cattle to be fatted—oh, they are surely corks, these specialists in wind. And we, the Jakes and Georges, the Harrys, Toms and Dicks, who toll at looms and forges, and manufacture bricks, are clumps enough to swallow the doctrines that they plead; are clumps enough to follow where'er the wind-smiths lead! The non-producers guide us and tell us we are free; the non-producers ride us like Old Men of the Sea. O'er all the land they're spinning in gorgeous palace cars, in purple and fine linen, equipped with rich cigars, and we who toil and struggle, and sweat in cataracts, should listen while they juggle with figures, words and facts!
