

THE MOST STRIKING

feature of the POLAR BEAR is its beautiful white coat, which is in keeping with the whiteness of its surroundings in the Arctic regions. Its snow in those regions, however, is not whiter than clothes washed with SUNLIGHT SOAP.

The beauty of SUNLIGHT SOAP is in its purity, and the easy way in which it releases dirt from clothes, without injury to the fabric no matter how fine it may be. It is manufactured with the purest materials and there is £1,000 Guarantee of Purity on every bar.

Germans Say They Own the Only Efficient Secret Service.

Popular Belief is all Spies Supposedly Working for Russia Were in German's Service.—French Efforts were Despised.—British Idea Ludicrous.

(Special to Central News.)

London, Oct. 29 (by mail).—A venturesome correspondent who succeeded in reaching Berlin a few days ago sends a story of life in the German metropolis, which casts interesting sidelights on the German point of view.

The narrative opens with an account of a friendship which the correspondent struck up with a couple of German officers.

"Sitting round a large corner table at the Cafe Furtenhof," continues the writer, "with huge glasses of beer in front of us and a good after-dinner cigar, the reference of the two officers melted away.

"Spies," said one of the two young fellows, "why should we worry about spies? All the men and women, especially the women, who were supposed to be spying for Russia in Germany and Austria were playing a double game. Russia was persuaded they were spying for her, and they were really spying for us. A few useless and fantastic reports sent to St. Petersburg (note the name) were good enough to put them in the confidence of generals and archbishops, and so they could get for us very important secrets.

"France never had a secret service worth talking about, and the few attempts at Britain in this direction were so clumsily done that it was really pathetic to see how the poor chaps got into trouble for sending home information and plans they could easily have copied from railway maps and tourist books.

"We are the only nation on earth knowing how to organize a secret service.

"You seem most proud of your spies," I remarked.

"Spy is a very ridiculous word," he rejoined. "Napoleon had spies; we have informants. They mix with all classes of society, they manage to get everywhere, from the royal palace to the country shop, from the barracks canteen to the Premier's house. Be certain that nine-tenths of those who have been arrested as our emissaries in France, Britain and Russia have nothing to do with it, and that most of the real ones are still doing their job and doing it well.

"We know everything that happens in Britain. We know the exact number and destination of troops sent from Britain to the continent; we know of every one who goes in or out of Britain and also of his business and his intentions.

"Oh, do you? I could not help exclaiming, as I burst out laughing. "Yes, we do," he went on, with unshakable firmness. "For instance, we know that Earl Kitchener is struggling to raise his army; that London is in darkness for fear of the Zeppelins; that the King and the royal family have left Buckingham Palace for a small private house—afraid of bomb dropping.

"It is really very childish of the British authorities to think that we shall send a lonely airship to drop a few bombs on London. They would not do much harm, and they would produce a panic, with the result that Kitchener would, perhaps, get on better with his recruiting. We know perfectly the British and their quiet nature. They are still asleep and it would be very foolish of us to wake them up."

GERMANY'S PEACE TERMS OFFERED TO FRANCE SPURNED.

London, Oct. 31.—The Morning Post this morning says it is informed that the report that Germany has made unofficial peace proposals to France is correct.

According to this report, France was to receive back Lorraine and a part of Alsace, and allow Germany to retain a portion of Belgium, which would give to her an approach to the Scheldt.

It is the general opinion here, however, that the alleged proposal was merely a German scheme designed to create friction among the Allies.

Officially the British Government says if such a treacherous proposal was made, France would spurn it.

"This is a war to the finish, and peace only will be made when France, England, Russia, Japan and Belgium unitedly agree to the terms," it is declared.

A Remarkable Tribute to

Gin Pills FOR THE KIDNEYS

In February last, Mrs. J. P. J. Wedge of East Street, Summerside, P.E.I., wrote to a friend in Toronto and among other things said, "Gin Pills are the greatest of all Kidney remedies and a medicine which is at present doing me a world of good. They are worth their weight in gold to any sufferer". We asked permission, through a mutual friend, to publish the above extract and received the following testimonial to the great efficacy of Gin Pills.

Summerside, April 24th, 1914.
"Your letter of the 21st, to hand this evening, asking my permission to hand my letter to the National Drug & Chemical Co. You have my full permission to do so, and to them I give the liberty to publish and use my name if they wish, because Gin Pills have done for my husband and myself what no other remedy could do.
I have advised two other parties to use them; one being my Mother, who has been a great sufferer for upwards of 20 years and one box of Gin Pills cured her so as to enable her to sleep on her left side, something she could not do for many years.
The doctors told her they could not cure her but could relieve her by an operation for a Floating Kidney, but on account of her age they did not think it was advisable for her to undergo. Upon my advice, she tried Gin Pills which cured her and for which she is ever ready to speak in terms of praise."
MRS. J. P. J. WEDGE,

Remember, you can TRY Gin Pills BEFORE you buy them. If the urine shows brick dust deposits or mucus—or is hot and scalding—if you have to urinate too frequently—if there is a burning in the bladder or pain in back—get Gin Pills at once and cure yourself. Gin Pills are sold by all dealers at 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50 and every box carries with it our spot cash guarantee of satisfaction or money back. Sold in U.S. under the name "GINO" PILLS. NATIONAL DRUG & CHEMICAL CO. OF CANADA, LIMITED, TORONTO.
