

Nature's Greatest Washers

The sea washes the world—Pears' Soap washes its inhabitants!

For over a century, Pears' has been making its way round the world. Ask for it in your local store; it is there! From the Cape to Cairo, in the bazaars of India, throughout Australia, Canada, the U.S., and South America Pears' has made its way with civilization,—on merits!

Pears' Soap is transparent because it is pure; it is the most economical soap because "it wears but does not waste." It cleanses and purifies the skin and freshens up body and mind.

"Pears"

is not heavily scented. Its delicate perfume comes from pure natural ingredients; the difference is important,—it means again that Pears' soap is pure.

Foley Doped or Dreaming?

For Evening Telegram.
Dear Sir,—Mr. Foley must be an old liar. He sticks to his original story that there were fifty-four members at the committee meeting of the Workmen's Party when it was decided by a vote of ninety-five to five to place a man on the Opposition list, in the face of the names of thirty-three men who say they were present at the meeting. "I counted them," says truthful Mr. Foley, "and we were only fifty-four there." Mr. Foley either lies or was dreaming when he counted and made fifty-four of 199.
Mr. Foley states that Mr. Chipman counted the members present and agreed with him that the number was fifty-four. Either Mr. Foley lies again or Mr. Chipman lied when, a few nights ago, he told that, although HE DID NOT COUNT THEM, he had roughly estimated the number at from seventy to eighty-five. Now, who lied there? Have no doubt at all that it was our truthful friend, Mr. Foley, the would-be Labor leader.

Mr. Foley notes with surprise that, the list of names of members present which I collected and published, were some names repeated. Correct first guess. Your unworried inference, Mr. Truthful Foley, is all wrong. In each case where there were names repeated there was another man to correspond with it. Did you never before hear of more than one man with the same name? After a belaboured perusal of the list, our Newfoundland lineage descendant of George Washington tells us that in the list there were names of some who voted against the proposition. That may or may not be so. The important point is that they were THERE.

Mr. Foley is licked, and no amount of personalities or reference to matters totally irrelevant can cloak the fact. My advice to you, Mr. Foley, is to first soak your fat little head in a big tub of cold water and then go away back and sit down.
Yours sincerely,
J. R. SMALLWOOD.

P. S.—Now don't stick your head around the corner again to-morrow and yell "Bah, Smallwood! Bolshevik Smallwood—Atheist Smallwood—Robber Smallwood—I'm not afraid of you." I have lots of work to do, Mr. Foley, and really I cannot be bothered with your tedious-like worrying.

Liberal-Labor Committee.

FIBRE THE VICTORY BOUND.

A real-for-sure, full-of-peg, enthusiastic committee meeting was held in the Liberal-Labor rooms last evening, when preparations for the final round of hot-shot for the enemy were made. Upwards of 300 were there, and both rooms, stairs, hall and stairs were filled with eager committeemen. All the old-time vim of the Working-men's Party Committee was in evidence and the spirit of optimism hung in the air and pervaded each man. Chairman John Cadwell, and others addressed the men and right up till nearly midnight things went along with fire and enthusiasm.
"Hang 'em down!" is the slogan and "hang 'em down" till to-morrow every man will.—The victory is won.

Along the Railway.

Up to this morning there was no sign of abatement of the storm which has been raging along the railway line since Saturday afternoon. At the Gaff Topsails and west the storm yesterday was at its worst. The temperature was from zero to 15 below. The west bound express which left here Thursday last is now west of Bonaventure and is preceded by a heavy snow. During yesterday progress was very slow and the train had moved only six miles. The special plow which was clearing the road ahead of the train was at Clarke's Beach last evening. No trains were moving on the branch lines yesterday. The incoming express is still snowbound at Gaff Topsails.
