When Shall Their Glory Fade?

To-morrow, July 1st, is the sixth anniversary of the Battle of Beaumont Hamel, that fatal engagement in which the pride of Newfoundland spent their efforts in attempting to accomplish more than demi gods could have accomplished, and in their doings so were mown down by German machine gun and rifle fire, yet gamely persevering had all but reached their objective spite of the intensive and terrific storm of bullets from the enemy lines, when they found to their bitter disappointment that the task essayed was impossible. They had done all they could, all that was humanly possible, and withstood the tornadoes of shot and shell hurled upon them, yet they never for a moment quailed, never hesitated to carry out orders, and in their failure scored the greatest of successes, by proving their gallantry and demonstrating, not only to the British army, but to the world, that Newfoundlanders were worthy the tribute paid them by their Brigadier, after the action, "Better than the best." So in commemorating their heroism to-morrow let us all join for a moment in silent prayer for those who endeavoured to conquer odds that were too great for them, but whose sublime courage teach an object lesson to all who come after. These failed not in the hour of trial, and for this the admiration and praise of an Empire will never die or fade. Beaumont Hamel—the name is indelibly imprinted on our memories. Never, so long as Newfoundland remains the gem of the ocean, will July 1st, 1916 be forgotten. Heroes all, the men of the battalion of the Royal Newfoundland Regiment, who went into action on that fated morn, were as steady as if on parade, and went "into the jaws of death, into the mouth of hell" as coolly and calmly as though they had formed up for inspection. "We shall remember them." These four words are eloquent. They need no amplification. Those who died, cut off in the prime of manhood gave freely, made the supreme sacrifice willingly. With bowed heads, for the anniversary of their death is no day of rejoicing, but rather of solemn commemoration, let all do honor to the men who fought and died for God, for King, for Country and for the freedom of the world. The following verses from the pen of P. E. Goldsmith which were published in the London Times of August 28th, 1917, contain sentiments to which we all can subscribe, and which are fittingly appropriate to the day, which Newfoundland for all time will honor, and revere in memory of her heroic sons—

NEWFOUNDLAND.

There lies a Land in the West and North
Whither the bravest men went forth,
And daunted not by fog nor ice
They reached at last to a Paradise.
Full two thousand miles it lay

Washed by a sea of English grey,
And they named it Newfoundland at sight;
It's rather the Land of Heart's De-light.

Now after close five hundred years
You give us back with fearless eyes,
Dism'd with glory but not with tears
The greatest gift that a land can prize.
You give back all that there is to give
The young who die so the Land may live.
Nor will it otherwise.
Die? They are weary, God gave them rest.
Fall? They are raised for evermore!
Whether on Beaumont Hamel's crest
Or "Caribou Hill" by the Turkish shore,
Never their glory can fade or fall
Who have won the greatest Cross of all,
Nor ever their country dies!

Ah! Men must know you to understand,
Have seen the cliffs of your rugged land,
Have seen the mist come rolling down
The hills that guard the glistening bay.
Have seen the schooners creeping in,
And smelt the homely smell within
The fishing port asleep.
And in the rivers flowing free
Through the spruce woods to the sea
Have known the pools at break of day
Where silver-coated salmon play.
And seen the tangled river's brink
Where caribou come down to drink,
And heavers build and creep.

All this is shared with those who fell.
It is the Land they loved so well.
For many a soldier lying low
In some French village-battle glow,
Sees before his blood is spent
The sunset over Heart's Content.
Many a sailor, lost at sea
Sweeping a mined-in channel free,
Sees his schooner far away,
And sunrise in Conception Bay.
Aye, though they died on distant shores
They died for this! It's doubly yours!
And there is Pride and Comfort too
To know what they once loved and knew.

There lies a Land in the West and North
Whither the bravest men went forth,
And daunted not by fog nor ice
They reached at last to a Paradise.
A Land to be won by those who durst,
No wonder the English chose it first,
And they named it Newfoundland at sight;
It's rather the Land of Heart's De-light.

Judge's Threat.

WILL BIND OVER FAMILY.
"This Court has more important things to do than listen to family quarrels, and I see any of you before me again I shall bind over the whole family to keep the peace," said Judge Morris in settling an assault case this morning. A woman who has figured recently with members of her family in several civil court cases, was the defendant and it was proved that she had hit plaintiff a man—in the face. She was fined $1.

Why stay in the city Sunday after Memorial Service when, by getting your lunch at Father Ashley's, Torbay, you can help him in his work?—jne30,11

School Holidays Begin.

RELIEF TO TEACHERS AND PUPILS ALIKE.

With the end of the C. H. E. Examinations, the holidays in all the city schools automatically begin. The summer vacation usually lasts for from eight to ten weeks, during which time the children can rest from the trials of school life, particularly the abominable home lessons. The examinations in the higher grades end to-morrow, but have finished in nearly all other grades.

On the Salmon Rivers.

ANGLER'S HAVE GOOD SPORT.

Last week on Grand River, Codroy, over 100 salmon were taken by about 20 rods. On Little Barachois 9 fish were landed and on Robinson's 6. The captain and officers of H. M. S. Constance, who were on Fischel's River found the water too low and transferred to Barachois Brook, St. George's, where they took a small number. The first salmon taken at Harry's Brook fell to the rod of J. L. Faunce of Philadelphia. This was on the 29th inst., and the heaviest fish was 10 lbs. Later the captain of the Constance visited the pool and landed a 12 lb. fish. On the Serpentine River there are a number of American sportsmen and two rods had 10 salmon to their credit, the heaviest fish being 14 lbs. There are no parties fishing on the Humber as the water is as yet too high.

GIRLS' FRIENDLY SOCIETY.

The meeting of G. F. S. Candidates called for on Tuesday has been postponed till Tuesday at 2.30 p.m.—jne30,11

City Improvements.

MUCH-NEEDED ROAD REPAIRS.
The Council's employees are making splendid improvements to the various public highways leading from the waterfront. The men are at present bedding Harvey's arway and in the work have used some four hundred or more loads of filling. The Council has also further improved the dangerous corner at the junction of Circular and Monkstown Roads and yesterday several feet more of Whiteaway's property were taken in to widen the turn. The place which was always dangerous to vehicular traffic, is now as safe as any other turn in the city.

After the Memorial Service come out to Torbay and have a nice dainty lunch at Father Ashley's and help him in his work. jne30,11

Bad Character

Sentenced.

FOUR MONTHS FOR OFFENSIVE CONDUCT TOWARD CHILDREN.

A depraved character whose activities have been chiefly in the neighborhood of Rennie's River, and whose actions have caused anxiety to the parents of children, who play in this locality, has been rounded up by the police and to-day was sentenced to four months' hard labor in the penitentiary. Last year and again this summer, children were complaining that they had been accosted by a man, but in every case the children were too frightened to describe him, and consequently the police had very little to work on, although they brought in several suspects. During this week a number of school children had occasion to complain of this man's actions and being able to give a good description, the police ran him to earth. He is a painter by trade, about 35 years old, well dressed and resides on Stephen Street. The case was tried in Chambers this morning and some six or seven children gave evidence. Judge Morris in passing sentence said the matter was of such a filthy character, that although it was the prisoner's first offence, he would not allow the option of a fine but would send the accused down for four months with hard labour as a warning to others.
