

PROMISE AND PERFORMANCE

We announced earlier in the season our aim to seek Star Values for our numerous patrons, and to-day—through the alertness of our American buyer—we feature the first of these STAR VALUES in

DRESSES AND SUITS

They are the very newest arrivals, secured through our buyer being right on the spot when several of the bigger houses we're clearing stocks by reason of financial entanglements.

IT WAS OUR GREAT OPPORTUNITY.

NOW IT IS YOUR OPPORTUNITY

To secure the pick of absolutely the best values in the prettiest selection of DRESSES seen in St. John's for years.

Laid to Rest.

THOMAS FITZGIBBON.

Yesterday afternoon the funeral of the late Mr. J. Fitzgibbon, wife of the late Mrs. J. Fitzgibbon, took place from the residence, Water Street, West. A large and most representative group of citizens attended as a mark of respect to the memory of the deceased, and of sympathy to her bereaved husband. The funeral was held at the residence, 102 Barnes Road, on Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons, Feb. 20th and 21st, from 3.30 to 6 p.m.

Mrs. F. M. Ewing will be "At Home," at her residence, 102 Barnes Road, on Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons, Feb. 20th and 21st, from 3.30 to 6 p.m.

Sachem Reported.

DUE AT LIVERPOOL FRIDAY.

Yesterday evening the Furness Withy Company received the following message from S.S. Sachem, Capt. Furness: "S.S. Sachem, Sunday afternoon, making good time, 470 miles east of St. John's. Expect to arrive Liverpool Friday midnight."

The Sachem left here on Thursday morning and despite the ice conditions off the coast has made an excellent passage.

HOUSE AND BARN DESTROYED

A house and barn, and contents of both, owned by Mr. William Lockyer of Trinity, was destroyed by fire at 3 p.m. Saturday, according to a message received in the city that evening by Mr. James D. Lockyer. As the house and barn are isolated from other buildings, no damage was done to any other person's property. No particulars are available as to whether Mr. Lockyer carried any insurance.
