Eyes are Seldom Mates

After middle life, and frequently earlier, the eyes are apt to be of unequal strength.

If this inequality is not corrected, the weaker eye will be overworked and be thus made weaker still.

This shows the necessity of always having each eye separately examined.

We fit spectacles that will correct every defect of vision and strengthen weak eyes.

From Cardston District

Cardston, Jan. 16—Sheriff Young, of Lethbridge, was a passenger on today's train.

A large number of people having taken advantage of the Christmas excursions to Utah, returned this morning. Among them were Mr. and Mrs. Seeley of the Sterling hotel, and Mr. and Mrs. Bingham of Cardston.

The furniture was saved in the Mountain View meeting house.

Today's train ran into a snow drift just east of the sugar factory at Raymond and was held for about an hour.

Geo. McNab is taking the place of Bobbie O'Hagan on the A.R. & I. engine Bob is one of the most popular engineers in the west. At present he is indisposed at his home in Lethbridge.

The first meeting of the board of trade was held last evening. The report of the secretary was read and adopted. The following officers were elected for the present year—President—Martin Wolf
Vice President—C. A. Gigot,
Secretary—E. N. Barker.
Executive committee—D. S. Beech, H. D. Folsom, D. E. Harris, Jr.

The board of trade is revivifying for the coming year, at least a motion was passed to that effect. It is quite likely they will send a delegate to Ottawa, to assist in the granting of the required subsidy for the construction of the Macleod, Cardston & Montana Railway.

The weather is quite mild at the present time, although the long-looked for Chinook which made a momentary appearance a few days ago, has not yet arrived.

The apparatus for the electric light plant is being installed.

Cattle are suffering on account of the heavy snow, which still carpets the range.

U. S. Reclamation service is stranded within a half mile of the international boundary line. They are engaged in transporting a large sixty-five ton shovel to the new canal on the other side of the line.

Boyd Dingman, charged with burglary and stealing was committed for trial on Monday and leaves today for Lethbridge where he will remain until the next sittings of the superior court, which will be held in Cardston the early part of March.

The Roscian Opera Co. presented Said Pasha and The Bohemian Girl on Monday and Tuesday. They leave for Magrath today where they will play Said Pasha, presenting the same opera tomorrow night at Raymond.

Monday's train was about five hours late as a result of a breakdown of the engine.

Stock judging school commenced at Magrath on Monday. Weather not very favorable for the first day but quite congenial to the work at the present time.

Cattle men in from the west state that no losses to speak of has occurred yet, although many of them are getting weak and poor. If the present cold weather continues, that is if the snow doesn't take a sneak fodder will be scarce among many of them.

Arrangements are being made by the Bishop of Mountain View to hold service in the school house, having suffered the loss of their place of worship by fire, as stated in a special wire on Saturday.

GOVERNOR OF JAMAICA REFUSES ASSISTANCE

ed thieves had possession of. The American vice counsel has no knowledge of it. The store is close to a sunny spot and the officer of the post professes ignorance of the incident.

"I believe the police surveillance of the city is adequate for the protection of private property. I may remind your excellency that not long ago it was discovered that thieves had lodged in and pillaged the residences of some New York millionaires during their absence in the summer, but would not have justified a British admiral landing an armed party and assisting the New York police.

"I have the honor to be with profound gratitude and the highest respect, your obedient servant.

ALEXANDER SWETENHAM, Governor.

Governor Swettenham arriving at that moment, there was a brief private meeting, and the governor escorted Admiral Davis to his carriage.

Salutations were exchanged, and the governor, replied, "Admiral Davis" regret that he was unable to do more for Kingston, said "all the more to your honor," adding a deep bow, evidently in reply to Admiral Davis' reference to his departure, and meaning that he would do the same if in the admiral's place.

Admiral Davis told the associated press that he deeply regretted the governor's attitude. He was still convinced that the governor was unequal to the task of relieving the distress, and that this was evident from the fact that the American field hospital had tended many sick and wounded, and that others were constantly arriving, having been unable to gain admission to the government hospital.

The American hospital was established in Winchester Park, the property of the Jesuits, Thursday under the American flag, and under the charge of the field surgeon, Morton of the battleship Missouri, and aided by sisters of Charity. The hospital received more than fifty sufferers, including persons with fractured bones, skulls, cases of blood poisoning which had resulted from neglected wounds, etc.

Governor Swettenham and the local medical men were greatly opposed to the American hospital, saying there was no necessity for it, as all the wounded already had been taken to Ottawa. Surgeon Ames said the local medical men were ready to accept medical supplies but wished them not to interfere with the wounded.

Governor Swettenham's attitude towards a friendly American officers' assistance is greatly deplored by many of the residents of Kingston, some of whom even suggest that he be petitioned to resign. His action is construed by some as inspired by resentment of president Roosevelt's attitude towards Jamaican negroes on the Panama canal.

Others ridicule the governor's objection to the landing of American sailors armed or not armed.

Last night the streets of the burned district still reeked with the stench of decaying bodies. Today many bodies were recovered through the aid of vultures, which perch in flocks on the ruins beneath which their prey is buried. As fast they are uncovered the bodies are thrown on the funeral pyres and slowly consumed.

The total number of known dead is about 450, and it is believed that there are at least one hundred and fifty persons who have not been accounted for. Food is coming into the city from country districts but a famine is greatly feared.

The parade and race course, where thousands of persons are huddled under improvised tents roofed over and sheathed with palm leaves, causes great apprehension of an outbreak of typhoid fever.
