Address.

The following is the address mentioned in last week's issue, as given by the I.O.O.F. lodge to Dr. G. F. Clark:—

To G. F. Clark, Esq., M.D., Aylmer, Ont. Dear Brother,—The brethren of Aylmer Lodge No. 94, I.O.O.F., have taken the liberty of summoning you to this special gathering this evening with a view of testifying in a pleasant way to the appreciation and gratitude so earnestly and warmly felt by every member of your lodge for your long and valuable services as its Treasurer.

The successful and satisfactory manner in which you have performed the important and critical duties connected with the position, your cheerful readiness at all times to execute every detail of your arduous duties and your care and judgement in dealing with our funds, not only merit our approval, but most forcibly remind us that, as the prosperity of a Lodge such as ours must from a financial standpoint depend upon the unwavering confidence of the members in their officers charged with the important trust of handling its funds, so the present high standing of Aylmer Lodge must be attributed in no small measure to the unselfish devotion with which you have so thoroughly executed that trust.

We realize that in our interests you must have sacrificed during all the years you have been our trusted officer, much valuable time, which, as a busy professional man, undoubtedly caused no small amount of personal inconvenience; and this we feel is a strong indication of your fidelity to the interests of our beloved order.

We would, therefore, beg you to feel assured that we have not been unmindful or indifferent to the great value of your services; and trust that you will accept with our united and heartfelt gratitude the gold watch accompanying this address, as a small tribute to that solicitude, watchful and careful attention with which you have guarded our interests and welfare.

Wishing you and your esteemed family many long years of success and happiness, with all the blessings that kind Providence and brotherly love can bring you, we are on behalf of the membership of the Lodge, faithfully your brethren, Wm. Warnock, C. B. Laur, W. E. Stevens, Geo. Lemon, Committee.
