Railway Accident on the C. P. R. at Guelph.

A Number of Passengers More or Less Cut and Bruised.

Guelph, July 26.-The C. P. R. passenger train on the Guelph branch met with an accident this morning about couple of miles from here on its way from Guelph Junction to the city. The train was running about 30 miles an hour through a bad cut. All at once there was a jolt, and a freight car, the passenger, smoker and express cars jured. He has an injury to taken to the General Hospital.

The accident is attributed to a bent axle on the freight car. The engineer and the trainmen lent every assistance and brought the passengers to the city Mr. Chris. Little, a passenger, says that he had to walk along the windows of the passenger car lying on its side, to force the door open, and that some of the occupants were pinned in their seats.
