Ringling Bros.' Big Show to Appear

Here on June 10. few facts and figures concerning the Ringling Bros.' wonderful tented amusement enterprise, which appears in its entirety here on Friday, June 10, attract more than the usual interest. The big show, with its three miles of parade glories, its famous menagerie. its beautiful spectacular production of Jerusalem and the Crusades, and its unexcelled arenic attractions, including the flower of the world's greatest performers and the most remarkable trained animal exhibition ever presented to the public, calls for the assistance of 1,280 emp'oyes. The canvas tents that inclose the wonders of this great circus, cover 15 acres of ground. Six hundred and fifty horses, all of them perfect specimens of the equine race, are used to draw the numerous wagons and to act in the three circus rings and and to act in the three circus rings and on the monster quarter-mile hippodrome track. In the sublime production of Jerusalem and the Crusades 1,200 characters are shown. The scenery used in Jerusalem cost a fortune, and was painted especially for the production by famous artists. In the colossal menagerie are 108 lairs, dens, cages and tanks filled with beasts of the forest, plain and jungle, and a host of queer water fowl and animals whose natural element is the water. The features of element is the water. The features of the menagerie include Baby Boo, the first baby elephant ever born and rear-ed in America, a pair of full-grown giraffes, the last of their kind, and the only rhinoceros in captivity. The Ring-ling parade is one of the finest ever at-tempted. The circus is transported in five long trains of 85 cars, each car being from 60 to 70 feet in length.
