"The Finest GREEN Tea Extant

Not a mere drink but a delicious and stimulating beverage. Unlike Japan tea, it's cleanly prepared, undoctored and "Pure."

NATURAL GREEN Tea of Ceylon. Sealed lead packets only. Net weight guaranteed. By all Grocers.

"Should I, Miss Doleful?" she retorts clear cold eyes meet hers unflinchingly. puts on her hat immediately after her So much more to say for himself, so breakfast, while Alice is decking hevery pleasant. What a singular thing self in a galatea, a witching costume. it is that he won't get married. He is which has been lying by in antician awfully good parti, you know. Oh, my dear, simple Paula!" and she puts her arm around Paula's waist, "what There, in a sheltered nook between him to sit by if he only chose! What wrest from his iron grip the wherewould I give for your chance? Of course withal to enable him to keep his prosee it; you would be blind if you mise to May.

ing to make this foolish sister of mine ing at a little distance from her. "is it?" says Paula with a flush on her face, and a light in her eyes. "And "Good-me is it not equally plain that she is not Miss Hamilton this morning. willing to be mistress of Powis Court or any other court?"

Pale and trembling Paula looks down at her steadily. "That is between me and-him," she says in a low voice. "Leave the past

But Alice is not discouraged. "I shall be charmed, my dear," she says, "if you will do likewise, and think a little of the present. But that is what you sentimental people will not do, is Of all selfish casses, commend me for pure, unadulterated selfishness, to the disappointed lover. You think me selfish and heartless and worldly; but, my dear, I cannot hold a candle to you. Here we are-not only we two, poor Bob-poor Bob you are so fond of, you know!"-with a sneer struggling with genteel poverty which you could raise us from with a wordyou could make your own terms with the Palmers, but you will not. You prefer to sit and weep over that niserable scapegrace, while your nearest and dearest lie in the gutter! It loes not strike me as very noble, my dear Paula; but, then, you see, I have ply never had the good fortune to be jilted by that flower of his sex, Sir Herrick

And with a shrug of the shoulders that gleam whitely through her muslin dress, Alice turns away, and Paula is eft to digest the biter words and to nake the best of them. with a gasp as if for breath—with Weston. "I am sure she will be pleased by the low, inarticulate cry of a wild and to see you, miss, quite sure."

Alexander, Mrs. Somerville, Mrs. R. K. Cowan, Mrs. James Duffield, Mrs. Bayly, Mrs. M. Masuret and the Misses Bayly.

imal driven to bay-she covers her face with her hands and sinks to her knees, huddering with horror and loathing. Not even for Bob's sake could she do this thing which Alice wants her to do-not even for Bob's!

CHAPTER XXXIV.

When she comes down next morning ites. pale and heavy-eyed, Paula finds her sunshade lying on the table of the sitting-room, beside it a small bouquet of hothouse flowers. Tied to the han- forgetful of the Frivolity, and the days dle of the holder is a small slip of pa- -not so very long ago-when her misper with, "For Miss Paula Estcourt, tress appeared nightly in a similar coswith grateful thanks," written on it in tume-"and the English ladies are all thin, Italian hand.

There is something else for her on of her head. "You might expect anythe table-nothing less than a letter, thing of the French, but that English bearing the huge crest of the Palmers, and addressed to her in the sprawling Whatever would they say if they were handwriting of Mr. Staney. It is to asked to do it at Brighton? the effect that he has hired a yacht | Paula smiles absently, only half lisof a man he met at the hotel after he tening. eft "the delightful society of Miss Paula writer will ton, as she stops before the white be much honored if Miss Paula and house Flossie's white fingers had inher sister will try the vessel today. Paula crushes the letter in her hand step into the morning-room I'll go and and flings it in the grate, the bouquet tell my mistress you've been kind and its tiny note she carries to her own enough to come." room, with an instinctive desire to Paula nods, and they enter. As she renceal them from Alice, who comes does so, she notices that Acacia Villa

"Anything from Stancy?" she asks. carpeted with Persian rugs, and lined "He promised to let us know the first with ferns and exoties: the little room fore this season.

ly. Why-why-what nonsense! Why be so lavish. "I don't want to," says Paula with a isfaction.

shrug of her shoulders. "Perhaps I'm afraid of the treacherous ocean. Indeed, I feel like the man in the comic song, 'That I was never meant for "That's all nonsense, and-and subterfuge," says Alice, angrily. "You know he has got this yacht expressly for you. You know he only cares about your going-

"I know nothing of the sort," Paula because guaranteed. Fifty years in says, a touch of crimson coming into use, painless, swift and sure. Insist her face and her brows drawing on having Putnam's. straight and ominous. And I do not wish to know it. Why do you worry me?" she says with an unusual burst, half indignant, half pleading. Worry you?" exclaims Alice.

States are found in the Southern (South Yes, worry me. Why should I do Atlantic and South Central) States, and days' visit in Toronto. this or refrain from that when 1; three-tenths (31.4 per cent) in Georgia, chose to be exactly the reverse. Have Mississippi and Alabama.

"It would be no pleasure nor enjoy-ROSE. ment to me," says Paula, quieti, must go along with May. Please go and enjoy yourself, and"—with a laugh Kennels this morning.

Alice opens her lips to renew the ara lucky girl you might be. How many two rocks, she coils herself up, book young persons would give their eye- in hand, and watches the green sea rumbling on over the "And yet there is a dreadful draught yellow sands, here," says Paula, looking at the win- jous specimens of Nouville society. which are already dotted by the var-But they pass unheeded, as usual, before Paula's absent eyes. She is "You foolish girl," she murmurs chid-thinking that today the mail will come that cried for the moon on a cold there may be a letter from dear Bob. in from the colonies-that perchance night when there was a good fire for fighting with Nature and trying to

With a sign of refler she opens field with a sign of refler she opens for book, but as she does so, happens to "That Stancy de Palmer is still wait- ed beside Miss Hamilton's chair, stand-Paula lays down her book and goes

> "Good-morning," she says. "How is Weston makes her a respectful lit. ronto yesterday morning to be guests

> "No, miss; she said she shouldn't go out today. Sometimes she'll stay in for days and days together, lying on her sofa and looking at the sea, or watching the neo I wanted to thank her for the beauful bouquet she was so kind as to of her grandfather, did not accept her send me," says Paula.

you so yesterday."

Paula picks up her book at once-

"This is the house, miss," says Wes-miss. Will you follow me, please."

[To be Continued.]

Corns Make You Limp.

Make you jump with pain, too. You'll nam's Corn Extractor. It can't fail, Nearly nine-tenths (89.7 per cent) of the negroes living in continental United like horse-riders and acrobats!

invitation, as she had intended. Weston bows. "I'll tell her, miss." Miss Edna Kent, of Fairlawn, is "Do, please, and will you say that I hope she will be better and soon able Toronto, the guest of Mrs. George to get out again? The air must be good Ridout, St. Albans street.

"Yes, miss," says Weston; then she looks at Paula, wistfully, and hesitatingly.

to Canada as A. D. C. to Lord Grey, is the son of the Earl of Albermarle. Lord Bury (Viscount), who will come 'Well," says Paula with a smile of The Dowager Countess of Albermarle encouragement, "what were you going was the daughter of the late Sir Allan MacNab, of Dundurn, Hamilton, at "I was going to presume, miss-to ask one time speaker if you'd be so good-you were so kind Parliament. Miss MacNab was a very yesterday-as to come and see my mis- lovely girl, and married Lord Bury (as he was then) when very young. The Paula colors, conscious of the exist-marriage took place at Dundurn. ence of a desire on her part to com-She sees no one, and it is so dull, Mrs. Anderson, Walmington House. says Weston pleadingly, "and—begging enjoyable six-hand euchre party was the ever delightful hostess of an your pardon, miss-she seemed to take four tables on Monday afternoon. "Do you think so?" says Paula with Reid, Mrs. Hawley, Detroit; some of the guests were Mrs. W. J. a little blush. "Well, I shall be very pleased if you think she would like to Leishley, Toronto; Mrs. John Hunt, Mrs. Edge, Mrs. Charles Hunt, Mrs. see me. When shall I come?"

Masuret and the Misses Bayly. and yet a strange feeling of hesitation Mr. Walter Kingsmill, of St. Thomas, almost of repugnance, seizes her; but she shakes it off, and there is no sign was in town for the last week-end. of it on her face as she climbs the gentle slope beside Weston, who ven-

Mrs. James Magee was hostess of a tures to make some truly British remarks on the customs of the Nouvillernoon in honor of her daughter, Mrs. "A-bathing in those costumes, just quisitely dainty with a center of white His excellency was also present to she says, with a sniff, and apparently quite which rested a crystal vase of graceful chrysanthemums. Mrs. Mac-Donald wore a pretty light brown suit a-doing it, too!" she says with a shake and white picture hat. Miss Mabel Magee was in white cloth with hat to match, and Miss Elliot, of Detroit, ladies should join them do surprise me! looked stunning in a very chic navy blue suit. Mrs. Harper had on a most becoming brown suit with brown touque, and Mrs. Frank Reid wore a gray costume. The other guests were Mrs. Kaye, Mrs. Drake, Tabby Moore, Miss Beddome and Miss dicated the preceding day. "If you'll Frances Macbeth. Mrs. Charles Hyman and Mrs. Smalltea at the Kennels on Monday afternoon, and have offered a prize for a down radiant and full of anticipatory is very different to the usual type of putting contest to be competed for by

"Yes," says Paula indifferently. There was a note from him asking us to try a new yacht he had hired. He wants place. A delicate perfume pervades the place in which a silence, most profound and impressive remains unbroken.

The marriage of Miss Pauline Astor to Captain Spender-Clay was of transaction and the honor guest, Miss Knapp, wore a similar costume of blue and scalet place, in which a silence, most profound and impressive remains unbroken. she is shown into is a little boudoir fit new yacht he had hired. He wants to go this morning."

'No! Really?" exclaims Alice deshtedly. "Of course we shall go."

The lace is worth more than the had hired. He wants place in which a stience, most protound and impressive, remains unbroken.

If Paula were curious about her new acquaintance, and wished to satisfy the stient of royalty ever wore costlier lace upon which were prettily decked with "Not I. I think, indeed, I'm sure," says Paula, trying to speak carelessly, and, if possible, avoid the torrent of remonstrance and expostulation, not to say indignation, which she knows will presently overwhelm her.

"Not you," retorts Alice incredulous-"
"Not you," retorts Alice incredulo "Not you," retorts Alice incredulous"Not you," retorts Alice incredulousdrawing-room in Raglan Place used to of hundreds of the rarest pearls money look, Miss Patti MacLaren, Miss Nova Niven, Miss Peters, Miss Harris, Miss Peters, Miss Harris, Miss Peters, Miss can purchase, of extraordinary luster, and secured after careful scouring of the pearl markets of Europe. It is worth £30,000, and, excluding the Beddome, Miss Elliot (Detroit), Misses Lillian and Louis Puddicombe Misses "My mistress is very pleased, indeed, quit limping in 24 hours by using Put-

Mrs. George B. Gerrard and her two with Mrs. Gerrard's father, Dr. Christie, n St. John, N. B.

has returned from a pleasant ten

The Lieutenant-Governor and Mrs. Herbert Gates, Miss Janes, Miss Helen Mortimer Clark have issued invitations and Miss Marjorie Gibbons, Miss Harfor a dinner party on Wednesday to or a dinner party on Wednesday to Graydon and Mr. George Macbeth.

celebrate the birthday of His Majesty

Hon. C. S. and Mrs. Hyman.

raison d'etre of a happy little gather-sabel Ryerson, Miss Elaine Hodgins, ronto.

King Edward.

The many girlhood friends in London of Mrs. Alan MacDougal Jones Mr. Leslie Dowker, of Montreal, Barker) will be glad to know that her came to London on Monday to spend husband has been one of the lucky the week at Idlewylde, the guest of the the G. T. P., and will be in the Northengineers to receive appointments on west for some time. Mrs. Jones, who Mrs. Hume Cronyn and Miss Allie Barker, in Toronto, will very shortly is at present with Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Hyman were to play the finals in the October handicap of the London Hunt join Mr. Jones in Winnipeg.

Ladies' Club over the links at the Miss Alison Dickison returned of Tuesday evening from a three-months trip to the old country. Miss Dickison Mrs. Frank Reid, entertained a small spent a ten days' visit with Mrs. Crawand enjoy yourself, and"—with a laugh
—"I hope you won't be ill. I'm sure, in honor of Miss Janes, of Toronto way home.

Captain Allen Magee, of Toronto. spent the past week-end with his Toronto presented him with a very handsome gold watch, chain and seal parents, Judge and Mrs. Magee, in a few days ago. Albert street, and was the delightful

Miss Shaw-Wood's prize of a dozen ing for afternoon tea at which the golf balls for the best score in the last guests were Miss Freida Puddicombe, week of October of the London Ladies' Miss Geraldine Beddome, Miss Mar-Golf Club was wen by Miss Fox. jorie Gibbons, Miss Leonard and Miss Knapp, Mr. Kortright, Mr. Macfie, Mr.

Walter Kingsmill, Dr. Henderson, Mr. went down to Toronto to meet Miss El-Mrs. John Smallman, Elton Lodge, eanor Smallman, who has been visiting Miss MacLaren at Bleak House, St. Catherines, and returned on Thursday Miss Harris, Eldon House, was the evening. Mrs. Smallman and Miss very gracious hostess of a most en-joyable luncheon party on Thursday ladies' club in Toronto street, Toronto, afternoon. Miss Harris wore a smart of which they are members. The club costume of white serge, and the table is luxuriously appointed, and its mem- Campbell), and her wee daughter, who quaint little place cards for Miss Janes. and proves a great boon for transient erines today. Miss Hale, Miss Peters, Miss Niven. members. Miss Marjorie Gibbons, Miss Nenone

Carling, Miss Freida Puddicombe.

Carling, Miss Freida Puddicombe.

Their Serene Highnesses Prince and Miss Gladys Michie, Miss Geraldine Princess Colloredo Mansfield of Austria the Week. Beddome, Miss Dora Labatt and Miss are distinguished visitors traveling in Ontario. The prince was in Ottawa last week examining pulp and paper mills, hostess of a delightful little tea Miss Freida Puddicombe and Miss with a view to profitably utilizing his the beginning of the week. Marjorie Gibbons went down to To- own extensive forests in Austria.

Hilda Reid, Miss Mary Osler, Mr. Philip Hawley of Detroit. and his Mary Gzowski, Miss Kathleen charming bride, spent from Friday to don, Miss Naomi Morrison, Miss Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. Reid. Adele Boulton and Miss Machray. Miss Olive Peters, owing to the recent death Mrs. J. D. McLeay and Miss Mabel McLeay are visiting in St. Louis.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Charles Leonard was hostess of a smart lunchspending a very delightful visit in eon party given in honor of her daughter's guest, Miss Louie Knapp, of Og-liot wore dresses alike of cream white very smart luncheon party of twelve ballroom had a buffet of splendid silver, amongst it being the famous Don-Charles MacDonald, Cona Lodge, To- 1875, Lord Minton, then Lord Melgund, riding steeplechases under that name. greet the guests.

> Dr. and Mrs. Edwin Seaborn (nee Bucke) are enjoying their lune de miel in Florida. Mrs. Seaborn, who will reside at 719 Dundas street, will not hold her post-nuptial reception until early in the new year.

Thursday was a grand day for the afternoon tea at the Kennels given by wishes of many London friends. Miss Edna Leonard in honor of her Miss Helen Gibbons, Miss Janes, Miss guest. Miss Louie Knapp. The large with a huge grate fire, and was of Canada last week, of which Mrs. whose eyes sparkled and cheeks glowed manwill be the hostesses of the weekly with the enthusiasm of the day. The car service was demoralized, so very many thoroughly enjoyed a brisk walk is very different to the usual type of putting contest to be competed for by lodging house in Nouville. The hall is those of the London Hunt Ladies' Golf and bottle-green plaid cloth shirtened and bottle-green plaid cloth shirtened. suit, the skirt tucked and flared, Queen's, is the finest rope of pearls in Lillian and Louie Puddicombe. Miss the kingdom. The ten bridesmaids, in-cluding Lady Sibly Grey, daughter of Miss Gladys Michie, Miss Edna Elliott, Canada's new Governor-General, had Miss Zimmerman, Misses Tabby and heir gowns especially designed by Jap Moore, Miss Edith Scatcherd and others.

The Misses Laura and Allie Hyman le ones, Marjorie and Jim, are being and Miss Mabel Magee were the host-Thursday after their long holiday spent at the Barracks this afternoon.

WAS A DRUNKARD

A pathetic letter from a lady who cured

I had been thinking of trying tasteless Samaria Remedy for my husband's drinking habit, but was afraid he would discover what I was doing.
The thought unnerved me, and I hesitated for over a week, but one day when he came home

The many friends will be delighted to see her at London smart functions during there visit here. "Should I, Miss Doleful?" she retorts lightly. "What a pleasant evening we have had! Oh, it seems like new life. Is that true about the yacht?"

"Mr. Stancy said something about the "Yery well, dear," she says. "Of says Alice with a laugh. "Really, it's ays Alice with a laugh. "Really, it's ays Alice with a laugh. "Really, it's ays Paula with a laugh, and she goes in law of the has improved!"

"Alice opens her lips to renew the argument, but there is something about the yacht?"

Mrs. Baldwin, wife of Mr. Charles Bank, St. Thomas, spent a very delightful week's thour early in the week in honor of her guest, Mrs. Pull Hawley of lawender crepe de soie, and among the to the line of Mrs. W. J. Reid received a few friends at the tea hour early in the week's thomas spent a very delightful week's thours early in the week in honor of her guest, Mrs. Pull Hawley of lawender crepe de soie, and among wath to hour early in the week, in honor of her guest, Mrs. W. J. Reid received a few friends at the tea hour early in the week in honor of her guest, Mrs. Pull Hawley of lawender crepe de soie, and among wath the team hour early in the week, in honor of her guest, Mrs. W. J. Reid received a few friends at the team hour early in the week, in honor of her guest, Mrs. W. J. Reid received a few friends at the tea hour early in the week, in honor of her guest, Mrs. W. J. Reid received a few friends at the tea hour early in the week, in honor of her guest, Mrs. W. J. Reid received a few friends at the tea hour early in the week, in honor of her guest, Mrs. W. J. Reid received a few friends at the tea hour early in the week in honor of her guest, Mrs. Wall regret to have deep withing must be done to say with the tea hour early in the week in honor of her guest from the top watching and paring must be done to say with the tea hour early in the week, in honor of her guest from the top watching and paring must be done to say the five from the came hour early in the week, in honor of her guest from the from the from the from the from th FREE SAMPLE and pamphlet giving particulars, testimonials and price sent in plain sealed envelope. Correspondence sacredly confidential. Enclose tamp for reply.

Address THE SAMARIA REMEDY CO., 23 Jordan Street, Toronto, Canada.

W. T. STRONG & CO., LONDON. to her home in Sydenham street, King-

Miss Lulu Porte, of Oakville, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Porte, who formerly lived in Queen's avenue, visiting relatives in town.

was exceedingly pretty with clusters bership roll includes les fashionables of have been spending a three weeks' visof pink crysanthemums. There were nearly all the large towns in Ontario, it in town, returned home to St. Cath-

Mrs. Fred Harper was the bright honor of Mrs. Buchan.

Mr. and Mrs. W J. Reid's nephew, Miss Brooke-Hunt, the "girl patriot," from England, who has been extensive-Order of the Daughters of the Empire, evening, dancing in the attic. last week repeated her conquest of men and women, military and civilian, at Ottawa, where she was the guest of Golf Club house at the Barracks was hol, of St. Thomas), received her wed-Miss Janes, Toronto, who is the guest ding calls at the residence of Mrs. John of Miss Gibbons, and one of Canada's G. Gauld, in South Park street, Hamiltensely interesting operation. Capt. most graceful and accomplished horse- ton, the first three days of last week. women, looked remarkably well in dark Mrs. Robert Reid, of this city, was of the present day and Messrs. Eaton, gray habit, mounted on Mrs. Beck's among the large number eager to wish Brunton and Leonard Tilley were grohorse. My Fellow, at the weekly run the charming bride every happiness in tesquely funny in their tattered clothers, and a royal welcome and enterof the Canadian of the London Hunt Club on Wednes- her new life in Hamilton. At the receping. Mrs. Fraser, Mrs. Kaye, Miss tainment by the University faculty and

Much sympathy is extended to Miss Sir Felix Semon (a distinguished good things, barberries, crimson rib- event long to be remembered. Upon Gibbons, who has for the past few days medical man and soldier), physician exbeen confined to the house on account traordinary to King Edward since 1901, a very guant effect. With streamers of were met by a committee from the has with Lady Semon and their son, red, white and blue flags and brilliant- Western University Tennis Club, and been visiting in this part of Ontario, ly illuminated with gayly colored lan-taken at once to the extensive and The farewell repertion held by Lady and early in the week were in Guelph, terns, the marquee was all that could beautiful grounds of the university. Minto at Rideau Hall on Friday after- where his son will enter the Ontario be desired. Blowing out the candle, which were the scene of the day's noon last, was a charming one, though Agricultural College to pursue the regular properties of the golden structure of the morning games, the a vein of sadness was felt as the good-byes were said. Lady Minto wore a beautiful turnuoise crepe de chine, with some magnificent diamonds, and the nendant of nearls and diamonds with a linear of the France-Prissiple. After the morning games, the cutting up the mould, ducking for apples and melting lead and all other college students were taken to dinner fortune-telling devices sacred to Halmand Paralysis in London, England, and sweetness to it all. In the wee small accompanied the party were entertainpendant of pearls and diamonds, with a is also a veteran of the Franco-Prus-hours, after the moon had come up to ed at the university. In the evening large stone hanging from the center, sian war. In Toronto and Montreal Sir cast ghostly shadows all along the way refreshments were served at the uni> nesday of last week, when Miss Annie dome, Miss Olive Peters. Miss Mabel courts, which were in excellent condi-Lavina Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Magee, the Misses Boucher, Misses tion, were filled all day, and fourteen Alexander J. MacKenzie, of Port Dann, Miss Madge Smith, Miss Nora won by the university. That the games Huron, Mr. W. N. Humphries, of this Niven, Mrs. McBurney, Miss Edith were keenly contested is shown by the the organ and Miss Myra Pickard sang Helen Harris, Miss Mary Puddicombe, 150 and the college 144. "Oh Day So Dear." The bridesmaids Miss Beatrice Richardson, Capt. Uniwere Miss Mae Smith, a sister, and Miss Jessica L. Hambly, of this city, while little Miss Marjorie Dresden was a dainty little flower girl. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. T. W. Blatchford, assisted by Rev. J. Mc-Innes. Dr. and Mrs. MacKenzie, who will reside in Port Huron, have the best reception room was very attractive branch of the Woman's Art Association Wood is the president.

> Mr. Simpson H. Graydon is the guest at Conemara, the home of his mother, Mrs. Simpson Graydon, Dundas street. Sir John Murray, the noted scientist, and Lady Murray, who have been visiting their niece, Mrs. A. A. Andrews, in Winnipeg, are expected in town to spend another visit with Mr. Archibald MacPherson, in Central avenue

> Miss Labatt, of this city, who has been the guest of Mrs. Newburn, in Hamilton, was among the many who enjoyed a very delightful matine musicale last Thursday given by Mrs. Herring in honor of her guest. Madame Clare Wright, of London, England, who is a graduate of the Royal Conservatory of Music of old London, and possesses a glorious voice. Miss Jo Belton was the happy recipient of the president's (Mrs. Robert Puddicombe) championship silver cup for 1904, which was so enthusiastically competed for by the members of the London Hunt Ladies' Golf Club, the presentation being informally made at the weekly tea at the Kennels on Monday last, of which Mrs. Becher and Mrs. Puddicombe were the hostesses. Mrs. Becher offered a prize for an approach and putting contest during the afternoon, which resulted in a tie tween Mrs. Frank Reid and Miss Jessie It is interesting to note that Lord and securing the prize, two quaint little Hale, the latter winning in the play-off Lansdowne, who enjoyed such im- silver photo frames. During the after-Miss Maud MacKenzie, Sprucehurst, mense popularity while Governor-Gen- noon Mrs. Gibbons and Mrs. Buchan eral of Canada, is one of the few no- drove out for a short while, and among lays' visit in Toronto.

Major and Mrs. Twining, of India,

Major and Mrs. Twining, of India,

Training and Mrs. Twining of India,

Major and Mrs. Twining of India,

Training and Mrs. Training a pleasant ten drove out for a short while, and among those who enjoyed the chatty cup of tea were Mrs. Drake, Miss Elliot, Mrs. Charles MacDonald, Mrs. Hale, Mrs. AN END TO BILIOUS HEADACHE.

Alice, and, indeed, I have not minded the submitting—not much—but when it comes to this—" she turns her head away.

To what, pray?" demands Alice, "To what, pray?" demands Alice, are headaches from cold, from the first opportunity of pleasure and the first opportunity of pleasure and enjoyment that has failed in our way for nearly a twelvementh?"

AN END TO BILIOUS HEADACHE.

Billiousness, which is caused by excessive bille in the stomach, has a marked effect the submitting—not much—but when it comes to this—" she turns her head ache. This is the mark deflect the submitting—raison detere of a very with an air of injured innocence. "To simply asking you to avail yourself of the first opportunity of pleasure and enjoyment that has failed in our way for nearly a twelvementh."

AN END TO BILIOUS HEADACHE.

Billiousness, which is caused by excessive bille in the stomach, has a marked effect the submitting—not much—but when it comes to this—" she turns her head ache.

There are headaches from cold, from the links man air of injured innocence. "To simply asking you to avail yourself of the first opportunity of pleasure and enjoyment that has failed in our way are it is—cure it almost immediately. It will disappear as soon as the Pills operation of the course was handsomely are ranged with bowls of beautiful mauve chrysanthenums and the guests were wisit to London was the reason of so many smart little functions, left of the first opportunity of bilious headache.

AN END TO BILIOUS HEADACHE.

AN END TO BILIOUS HEADACHE.

Billiousness, which is caused by excessive bille in the stomach, has a marked effect the submitted for the first opportunity of the nerves, and from or an area of the daughter. Mrs. George J. Robertson, Markham street, Hamilton.

Mrs. Nichol, of St. Thomas. Is the flund.

Mrs. Nichol, of St. Thomas. St. Bull.

Mrs. Nichol, of St. Thomas. St. Bull.

Mrs. (Colonel) Buchan, of Kingston, of Kingston, of St. Thomas. St. Bull.

Mrs. (Colonel) Buchan, of Kingston, of St. Thomas. S

merman, Miss Belton, Miss Scatcherd, Mrs. Harper, Miss Wood and others. A delightful feature of the afternon

her husband of his drinking habits.

was the presentation of a very handsome silver-mounted green silk brella to Miss Beddome, for the highest score of the previous week, the gift of Mrs. Fred Harper and Miss Macbeth, of Bleak House, Mrs. Charles MacDonald, Mrs. Fritz

Beck, Miss Mabel Magee, Miss May Beddome, Miss Janes, Toronto, and the Misses Lorna, Helen and Marjorie Gibbons were a merry party for luncheon at the Kennels on Friday afternoon last, of which Mrs. George C. Gibbons was the hostess.

Mrs. Septimus Denison is expected in London this evening to spend a visit with Mrs. Hume Cronyn. During her residence at Wolseley Barracks Mrs. Denison was a great favorite and her before returning home to Buffalo, N. Y. Mrs. Senior, Miss Morrison and Miss Margaret Morrison, of Ayr, are the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Cl. T. Campbell, in Queen's avenue.

The piece de resistance at the Torono Hunt Club annual gymkhana was a skirt and bonnet race, the participants to ride a certain distance, dismount, Mary Macfie won a consolation prize array themselves in dainty attire, of a dozen golf balls. There were ma dles, etc. The extraordinary appearance of the men sent the throng into the enjoyment of the day, Mrs. Buchan, Mrs Baldwin, St. Thomas: convulsions of laughter. Captain Elms- Mrs. MacDonald, ley, of Stanley Barracks, donned a Robinson, of St. John, N. B.; ley, of Stanley Barracks, goinned a Robinson, of St. John, N. D., voluminous blue skirt and dashing among others noted were Mrs.

The marriage took place on Wednesday afternoon at the Church of the Redeemer, Toronto, of Miss Cassie Rust to Mr. T. G. Dyas, son or Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Dyas, who formerly lived in the northern part of London and were great social favorites.

Talbot street, got up a very jolly sur- Rhona Yeates, Freida Clarke, Nelliprise Hallowe'en party, who went to and Louie Wright. Among the many Mrs. Willie Robinson's, on Richmond guests were Mrs. Frank Love, Mrs. B. ly entertained by the Toronto Imperial street north, and spent a delightful A. Mitchell, Mrs. Thomas H. Purdom,

The Hallowe'en party at the London Lady Minto at Rideau Hall previous a splendid success, many attending to sailing from Montreal on the Ionian and everyone entering into the spirit of the various amusements. A huge bon-Mrs. George J. Robertson (nee Nic-Barracks, presented a very beautiful are arranged by Sergt. Evans, of the tensely interesting operation. Capt.

How often you hear it remarked: It's only a cold," and a few days later learn that the man is on his back with pneumonia. This is of such common occurrence that a cold, however slight, should not ### be disregarded. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy

has gained its great popularity and extensive sale by its prompt cures of this most common ailment. It always cures and is pleasant to take. It counteracts any tendency. of a cold to result in pneumonia.

Price 25c, Large Size 50c.

e seemen som meeter d ines, Mr. S. D. Woodruff, a relative of Stewart Leonard, Cameron Brunton, Dr. Woodruff, of this city, passed away Victor Kerrigan, Jim Boucher, neth Smith, Leonard Tilley, Kenneth Macbeth, Jack Hunt, Hartley Green and others.

The tea given by the president, Mr. Verschoyle Cronyn for the members of the London Golf Club on Saturday last proved a very enjoyable function, Mrs. Betts and Miss Dorothy Betts very charmingly assisted in receiving and pouring tea. Miss Zimmerman and Miss Laura Hyman carried off the laurels of the afternoon-two handsome cups, presented by Mr. Cronyn, for an approach and putting contest, Miss chan, Mrs Baldwin, St. Thomas; he held in a masterly fashion between Mrs. Kaye, Mrs. Wishart, the Misses Belton, Hyman, Harris, M. Magee, Norah Dann, Somerville, Beatrice Richardson, Shaw-Wood, Zimmerman, Boucher, Niven, Macfie, Colonel Peters and Messrs. W. Pope, Cameron, Bethune, Boucher and others. Mrs. Frederick White, of 398 Queen's venue, was the hostess at a very large Cupid is ever a busy little fellow, Mrs. White was assisted in receiving Alice laughs.

"Don't fly at me like a tigress, my dear," she says, and don't make hasty resolutions. Let us wait a while. Even you," scornfully, "can't sit and weep you," scornfully, The Misses Edith and May Noble, the Misses May Higgins, Dot Yeates tea-room, which was in charge of Mrs. Horace Ferguson, Mrs. Alex. Purdom, Mrs. George F. Jewell, Mrs. Robinson, Mrs. (Dr.) Piper, Miss Boddy, Mrs. Hubert White, Mrs. Mann, Mrs. Chester Abbott, Mrs. Basil Sterling Mrs. Joe Booth, Mrs. Millman, Mrs. Andrew Mann, Mrs. John S. Moore, Mrs. Harry White, Mrs. Fred Beltz. Mrs. Fred Spittal. Miss Wilson, Mrs. U. A. Buchner, Mrs. Will Westland, Mrs. Thomas Coleridge, Miss May Fow. ler, Miss Christie, Miss Lougheed and Mrs. Edmund Beltz.

day afternoon. Miss Janes hoped to tion, Mrs. Nichol, of St. Thomas, moday afternoon. Miss Janes hoped to follow the hounds again this afternoon.

The follow the follow the hounds ag Felix and Lady Semon have been ex- the merry gathering dispersed. To versity, and a social time enjoyed. The particularize among the forty or more college party returned on Saturday silk. made in picture fashion, with vokes and ruffled sleeves of lace. The hallroom had a buffer of splendid sil-J. W. Smith, became the bride of Dr. Mary and Helen Macfie, Miss Norah events were played, of which nine were city, a cousin of the bride, presided at Scatcherd, Miss Shaw-Wood, Miss record in games, the university winning

Perfection in Style and Construction is why

ALMOST EVERYBODY WEARS

"Maltese Cross" Rubbers

A rigid system of inspection of materials used, of process of manufacture, and of completed goods prevents any imperubbers going on the market. In every case they

Fit well Look well Wear well

Manufactured only by THE GUTTA PERCHA & RUBBER MFG, CO. OF TORONTO, Limited, Branches-Montreal and Winnipeg.