STARTLING STATEMENT

Document Says Germany Refuses To Recognize Supervision by the United States.

Berlin, July 13.—Germany today threw down the gauntlet to the United States in an official statement issued by the foreign office, declaring that Germany intends to do as she pleases n South and Central American affairs, without supervision from Amer-

This belligerent message was given o a United Press representative after another formal message, given out earlier in the day, had sought to conciliate the feelings of Americans regarding the Kaiser's attitude toward President Madriz of Nicaragua.

The second message was handed to your representative at the foreign office with the request that it be given widespread publicity in America. No explanation is given as to the wide difference between the first and second messages. The second message said: "Ger many refuses to recognize any right on the part of the United States supervise her diplomatic relations with other countries, Central and South American countries in general and Nicaragua in particular. "Germany's recognition of Presiden Madriz is a matter that concerns herself and Nicaragua, but which concerns no third person or power."

Sensational Statement, This sensational statement is interpreted by some as Germany's first step toward refusing to further recognize the Munroe doctrine. In the first authorized message of the day, the foreign office declared Germany had no dream of a coaling station in South America, adding that her desire improve her trade relations. This first message was so concilia-

ory in its tone that it was thought the matter had ended, though it was known the temper of the United States had been sorely tried by Kaiser Wilhelm's recognition of President Madriz, who is persona non grata with America. After the first message had been given to your correspondent there was much bustling about in the foreign office, a number of the high officials taking part in the secret conference.
