His Remarks on First Lord in the House.

[Canadian Press.] New York, March 19 .- A cable to the Herald from London says: During the debate on the navy estimates last night, Lord Charles Beresford said: "Why is the first lord not in the House? It is most uncivil to the House and to myself, who sat in the House before he was born, and who was strong for reform on the lower deck when the first lord was at the business end of a feeding bottle."

Mr. Churchill entered the House shortly afterward and Lord Charles was pro- her reconstruction as a third-class an ceeding to say the first lord had broken his promises and pledges, when Mr Churchill yawned.

Lord Charles said he was sorry if he bored the first lord, and he could see right own his throat at that moment. Later rd Charles said:

I U SIMULI MINLUUSLI ACK MAZATLAN TORREON CITIES

Said To Be Plans of Mexican Rebel Forces — Villa and Obregon To Command.

[Canadian Press.]

Juarez, Mexico, March 19 .- A simultaneous attack on Torreon and Mazatlan was predicted in advices received today It was said that while Gen. Villa's rebel army was moving against Torreon, forces under Gen. Alvara Obregon would assault Mazatlan. Ozregon was reported to be moving 12,000 troops against the Pacific coast port. This was said to be part of a general plan for an aggressive movement against all Federal forces in Northern Mexico.

The fall of Mazatlan, it was said, would mean virtual control of the west coast, while the capture of Torreon, the railroad centre of Central Mexico, would threaten the capital. If the rebels capture these two points, both armies would, it is said, nove against Guadalajara, which is the strategic key to the south.

According to the plans, Guaymas would be ignored, in hopes that the California gulf port might fall with the capture of Mazatlan. It was said that the simultaneous movements against Torreon and Mazatlan had received the sanction of Gen. Carranza, new marching overland into Chihuahua

London fishermen who are interested in the proposal to have the north branch of the River Thames closed to fishermer for a period of two years, while the closed waters are restocked with black bass spawn, have forwarded a petition to Frank Glass, M.P., asking his aid in the proposition.

Hundreds of local fishermen are in favor of the branch being closed up and restocked, believing that it will be the only solution for local knights of the rod and reel to save the old fishing holes with which the north branch abounds. absence of outside selling orders, despite the injection of new, unfavorable influences into the speculative situation, prompted operations for the long account, and prices were advanced.
