Some Logical (?) Reasons Women should not vote:

1. Because no woman will leave her domestic duties to vote.
2. Because no woman who votes will attend to her domestic duties.
3. Because it will make dissension between husband and wife.
4. Because every wife will vote exactly as her husband does.
5. Because bad women will corrupt our politics.
6. Because bad politics will corrupt our women.
7. Because women have no power of organization.
8. Because women will form themselves into a woman's party.
9. Because men and women are so different that they must have different duties.
10. Because men and women are so much alike that men with one vote each can express themselves and us, too.
11. Because women cannot use force.
12. Because the militants can and do use force.

And these are all actual arguments, in frequent use.

He Didn't Know. There is a story told that at a party given at Lord Palmerston's a few evenings after the opening of Parliament by Queen Victoria, one of the guests, who was specially interested in the Cap of Maintenance, which is borne before the Sovereign on State occasions when the Crown is not worn, questioned the Prime Minister as to its significance. "Don't you know," said Palmerston, "I don't know; but Lord Winchester, who carried it, is here, and he'll tell us." Lord Winchester was presently discovered, and the question was put to him. "You're as wise as I am," he said. "I've never thought of inquiring what exactly it does mean."

THE HOROSCOPE

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 22, 1914.

Astrologers announce that this is a variable day in which to exercise caution and common sense. Although Mercury and the Sun rule for good, Uranus, Jupiter and Venus are all adverse.

The day is an auspicious one for signing contracts and there is an encouraging rule of law. Jupiter's evil sway gives warning against transactions with lawyers or clergymen. It is not a lucky time for speculation. Brokers are subject to loss and disappointment.

Women should be exceedingly circumspect while the aspect prevails, for they may lose friends and lovers. Moderation in eating and drinking is imperative, while the configuration lasts. All matters associated with finances, property and possessions should be delayed.

There is a forecast of trouble for the mayor of Chicago, who probably will face severe problems of expediency within the next few weeks.

The Southern States will be aroused on a question touching their rights. A United States senator is warned against impetuous and ill-considered speech and action. It is predicted that a woman will concentrate national influence on a patriotic movement, which will cause a great injustice.

The stars indicate a storm period, which may cause shipwreck of vessels cruising in British waters.

Danger from riots is foreseen in Boston and other eastern cities. Plots to do violence are prognosticated and sensational crimes may result from strike agitations and campaigns by the unemployed.

San Francisco remains under influences which give warning of serious troubles. The explosion will be the centre of anxiety, but its success as an enterprise of world-wide importance is assured.

St. Louis has a foreshadowing of public disaster. The planets indicate loss of life and property.

Persons whose birthdate it is have warning. Both men and women probably will suffer financially. Heavy expenses in the family are predicted. Speculation is governed by an evil sign.

Children born on this day are likely to be generous, unselfish and popular with persons of all classes. Taurus gives them a practical understanding of life, strong mentality and methodical habits which insure success.

One of the quickest known ways of dispelling a headache is to give some of the muscles—those of the legs, for instance—little shocks of vitality. The reason is obvious. Muscular exertion flushes the parts engaged in it, and so depletes the brain. When your head aches take a stiff walk or a short bicycle ride.

Normandy collars are the rage among neckwear models, and very smart they are on tailors' frocks, blouses and waistcoats. The "Normandy" is a high standing affair, having two sharp points that stand out from under the ear-lobses.

How may I make my kitchen frocks fireproof? asked Mrs. Newlywed.

"When washing the frocks I always add one ounce of alum to the last rinsing water. I find this a precaution worth taking, as it renders them fireproof," answered Mrs. Neighbor.

THE SPRING GIRL WILL WEAR A FLOWER-DECKED DOLLY VARDEN

Some of us can remember seeing up in the attic a hat which grandmother fondly called a "Dolly Varden." This year the milliners are bringing out one with the lace frills and the pink ribbons and roses that closely resemble it. These hats are built up in the back and are almost flat on the top. They are made of tulle braid and are usually of delicate colors. The one shown is of pale blue tulle braid with white lace and pink and blue morning glories and blue ribbon. It would be beautiful with a white lingerie gown.

[Correspondents are requested to make their inquiries as brief as possible, and to write on one side of the paper only. It is impossible to give replies within a stated time, as all letters have to be answered in turn. No letters can be answered privately.]

Antony and Agincourt.

Dear Miss Grey.—Please tell me in paper who and what was Antony?

2. Also was there a war at place called Agincourt?

3. What will cause eyelashes to grow longer?

And oblige.

Ans.—I think it is Mark Antony who is inquiring about. He was a Roman general and politician who lived 83-30 B.C. While still a young man displayed considerable talent in several campaigns, and was appointed by Caesar as the commander-in-chief of his forces in Italy. Before the end of 43 B.C. Antony, Octavius and Lepidus formed a league or triumvirate, and after several triumphs defeated Brutus and Cassius at Philippi, 42 B.C., which rendered the three the masters of the Roman world. Antony received his name from the fact that he was of the Roman world. Antony received his name from the fact that he was of the Roman world.

3. To rub a tiny bit of vaseline or castor oil in each night helps, but it is very apt to irritate the eye if any gets in.

2. Yes, Agincourt is a village in France. Near it the English king, Henry V. with 15,000 men, gained a complete victory over the French forces of about 60,000, October 25, 1415.

3. To use Peroxide.

Dear Miss Grey.—I saw in your column a couple of weeks ago that peroxide and ammonia would remove furrows from the face. Kindly inform me how to apply it and how often. Is it harmless to the skin? Do you mix the two liquids or not? Thanking you in advance, Yours,

A COUNTRY GIRL.

Ans.—It is said that the regular use of peroxide will in time cause the distressing furrows to drop out. After washing the face with warm water, apply the ammonia diluted in a little water, then when this dries, dab on the peroxide, using a soft bit of cotton.

Horoscope Wanted.

Dear Miss Grey.—Would you please publish the Horoscope for January 6. As this is my first favor would like this printed. Remain, SHUNSHINE.

Ans.—I am very sorry, Sunshine, but it would take up too much space. If you send me your address on a stamped envelope, I shall mail you a copy.

Concerning an Engagement.

Dear Miss Grey.—As a rule, how long should one be engaged? Should the girl's parents be told of the engagement? If so, who? Whose place is it to tell them? When should an engagement ring be given? Is a diamond the only kind of engagement ring? What mountings and what size are most proper, especially for the young man in moderate circumstances?

Ans.—The length of an engagement depends entirely upon circumstances. Per-

Notwithstanding many of the new frocks are mostly composed of furbelows, there are some chic fashions for the outdoor girl.

The one shown is of checked cotton ratine in dark blue and white. The skirt is not too scant to allow an athletic stride, and the belted coat, with its cords and buttons of dark blue, is stylish if plain.

With this coat and skirt is worn a white silk shirt, patterned after the soft silk shirts of our brothers.

A large Panama hat, with a broad dark blue velvet band, white gloves and, if you wish to be very chic, a malacca cane, completes this up-to-the-minute outdoor costume.

That tired feeling that comes to you in the spring, year after year, is a sign that your blood lacks vitality; just as pimples, boils and other eruptions are signs that it is impure; and it is also a sign that your system is in a low or run-down condition in which it will be easy for you to contract disease if exposed to it.

Ask your druggist for Hood's Sarsaparilla. This old standard tried and true blood medicine relieves that tired feeling. Get Hood's today.

TRIBUTE TO W. C. T. U. WOMAN.

Local members of the W. C. T. U. were grieved to learn of the death of the vice-president Mrs. W. C. T. U. Mrs. Lillian M. Stevens, in Portland, Maine, early in April.

The announcement of Mrs. Stevens' death was in fact, received with the deepest regret by many eminent men and women the world over, and scores of tributes to her memory have been received by her sorrowing family.

While the funeral services were being held from the home of her daughter in Portland, a memorial service was in progress at the National W. C. T. U. headquarters in Evanston, Ill. A notable thing was that for the first time in the history of the United States, the flag on the Capitol building at Augusta, Maine, and on the city hall and other public buildings in Evanston, were lowered to half-mast in honor of a woman.

At a convenient American statesman commented upon this fact: "For the first time in our history the state flag is half-masted for a woman. It is a silent tribute of a great people to a great life. It is a symbol of a grief at the passing of a great soul."

Mrs. Stevens was widely known and beloved, and her passing away leaves a place most difficult to fill in W. C. T. U. work.

KITCHEN KINKS.

A very good way to prevent a cracked wash basin from breaking is to paint along the crack with white paint. Then place along it a piece of white tape, the length of the crack. Paint well over this, and when dry it will be as firm as cement, and last for years.

After washing but glass in the usual way in soap and water, rinse in water which a little washing blue has been dissolved. After drying, polish with tissue paper. This imparts a fine brilliancy, which quite repays one for the little extra trouble taken.
