NINE A. M. C. MEN CHOSEN FOR FRONT

Major Dr. Davis, After an Exhaustive Examination, Selects Volunteers.

TWENTY-FIVE REPORTED

Instructions Have Been Received as to When Men Will Leave.

Major Dr. Evans G. Davis, the officer ommanding the Fifteenth Army Medcal Corps, went to the King street eadquarters of the corps last night, prepared to select nine men from the fifteen who volunteered on Wednesday to go as reinforcement to the main body of the Army Medical Corps with the first Canadian contingent. He found not fifteen, but twenty-five men awaiting him, all of them anxious to be among those selected.

Dr. Davis explained that only nine could go from London, but solaced the disappointed ones with the assurance that they certainly would be wanted for the second contingent. Of the fifteen whose names already had been taken, was hard to decide who were the most eligible. An exhaustive medical and physical examination was made of each, and the least little imperfection meant elimination. At last the list had been reduced to ine names, and the lucky men, laughing and congratulating one another of the sergeant-major for new uniforms which will be supplied as soon as pos-
