GRAIN.
Winnipeg, Nov. 10.—Wheat closed 3c down for November, 18c low for December, and 2 1/2c down for May. Oats were 1c lower. Barley was 2c down.
Flax gained 1/2c. November wheat, 7 1/2c for December, and 7 1/2c for May.

There was a big trade on a brisk live market today. The morning was featured with good buying, but this was early out of the market. The speculative interest was not enough to support the market, which became a little overcast. A lot of what appeared, which caused a sharp break.
This made the ranges very wide. During the day wheat prices were passed and re-passed the $2 mark.

The most exciting time came in the afternoon, when wheat was sold for about 1/2c. In the last 30 seconds the price of December wheat went from $1.91 to $1.92. The market was the trade was heavy. The high point of the day was $2.02 1/2 for November.
The cash trade was not so good. It was wanted badly, and only No. 1 showed an interest. Oats were in good demand, and barley was in good demand also. Flax was indifferent.

Chicago, Nov. 11.—Word that frost had done great damage to the crop in Argentina, and that the estimated Argentine exportable surplus had been reduced to 2,000,000 bushels, caused a sharp rise in wheat prices. The news was according to the bulls, the news from Argentina meant an increased European demand, and it led to increasing stocks of wheat in the United States.

On the other hand, it was argued that any temporary increase in buying on the part of the British commission would tend to induce undue speculation here by wheat holders.

Opening prices, which ranged from 1c to 1c 1/2 up, closed at $1.88 1/2 to $1.84 1/2, and may at $1.91 1/2 to $1.92 1/2, were followed by material gains all around.
