

SURVEY REVEALS ROSS AS FAVORITE

Liberal Candidate in East Middlesex Has Best Chance of Winning.

HAS FOUGHT CLEANLY

A survey of every subdivision in East Middlesex by Dr. C. G. Ross, Liberal candidate, would tend to show that East Middlesex will be back in the fold of Liberalism on Thursday night. Dr. Ross has received reports from practically every division, and every one has been most encouraging.

The Liberal candidate has been well received at every meeting he has held during the campaign. Such is the regard for Dr. Ross personally and for the clean campaign that he has fought, that not one heckler, Conservative or Progressive, has made any attempt to break up or disturb any of his gatherings.

Dr. Ross has not indulged in personalities of any description, and states that he will poll large votes in subdivisions that have long been looked on as Conservative strongholds.

The Liberal candidate will hold the last meeting of his campaign tonight in Manor Park schoolhouse, where he will discuss the policies of both Premier King and Hon. Arthur Meighen. Dr. Ross will be supported by such well-known speakers as Major Duncan Ross, M.C., Col. Clifford Reason, U. A. Buchner and others.

"I have received wonderful receptions at every meeting," said Dr. Ross last night, in discussing the political outlook for East Middlesex.

"We had a crowded meeting at Lincen to open the campaign, and the meetings have been excellent ever since. I have spoken at Lucan, Hyde Park, Thorndale, Liberton, Lambeth and Dorchester, and in every one of these places, some of them strongly Conservative, I met with a splendid reception. Not one heckler has shown up at a meeting, which certainly shows that the opposition have nothing much to complain about.

Biddulph, which has long been a safe Conservative township, has shown a decided swing to the banner of Dr. Ross. London township too, promises to add to the Liberal majority on Thursday, while Westminster township is expected to give the largest majority ever known in that good Liberal stronghold.

Dr. Ross has enunciated the policies of Premier King from every platform, and stands ready to back the Liberal chieftain when he forms the next government at Ottawa.

There have been strong disruptions in the ranks of the East Middlesex Conservatives during the campaign, culminating with the resignation of the president, Jim Robinson, who was asked to reconsider his determination.
