

No Place For Burial

Bodies of Victims of the Galveston Horror Taken to Sea.

Loss of Life in the City Placed at Five Thousand.

Terrible Scenes in the Streets of the Once Beautiful City.

Houston, Aug. 11th.—Latest estimate of the Post correspondent just back from Galveston places the number of lives lost at 5,000.

Houston, Texas, Sept. 11.—The tugboat Brunswick, which arrived here last night from Galveston, brought additional details of the disaster which overcame that city. The horrors of Sunday were as nothing compared with those of Monday. An attempt was made to bury the dead, but the ground was full of water and it was impossible to dig trenches. Alderman McMaster and S. P. Morrissey secured authority to have the bodies taken to sea for burial, and a barge was brought up to the Twelfth street wharf for that purpose. The firemen rendered heroic service in bringing the bodies to the wharf, but it was almost impossible to get men to handle them.

During the storm and afterwards a great deal of looting was done. Many stores had been looted, and the owners leaving to look after their families. The water forced in the windows and left the contents of stores and articles of value. Capt. Rafferty, commanding the United States troops here, was ordered to go for help, and he sent in 70 men, the remnant of the battery of artillery, to do police duty. The streets leading in the direction of the chief of police.

An urgent appeal to the outside world was issued, and those who respond are asked to send contributions to John Seely, chairman of the finance committee, W. Jones, secretary, M. Lane, president, Island City Savings Bank; J. D. Skinner, Galveston Cotton Exchange; M. McMaster, Galveston Chamber of Commerce; B. G. Lowe, manager Galveston News; or Clarence Ousley, manager Galveston Tribune.

At 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon a meeting of prominent citizens was held at the chamber of commerce for the purpose of organizing to relieve the suffering and to bury the dead. A burial committee was appointed, charged with collecting and burying the bodies of the dead. It is reported that the committee has been organized and is working to bury the dead.

The white cotton screwmen's organization held a meeting last night and tendered their services, that of 500 able-bodied men, to the relief of the suffering and to bury the dead. Big forces were at work last night, and the situation is somewhat improved, so far as the people are concerned. The city was patrolled last night by regular soldiers. No one was allowed on the streets without a pass. Several men were shot for not halting when ordered. It is reported that three of the citizen soldiers were shot by negroes.

The steamer entrance arrived this morning from Houston with water and provisions. A committee of 100 citizens were appointed to clear the streets of debris. The water has receded and it is possible to dig trenches, and bodies are being buried where it can be done.

Work on the waterworks is being rushed, and it is hoped to be able to turn a supply of water to the city by the committee met at 9 o'clock this morning. The city needs feed for horses. It is also in need of disinfectants. The committee of time at this time would be a blessing.

Brazoria county has offered armed men to protect the city. The committee has accepted the offer. The Post correspondent was instructed to forward the following address to the people of the United States:

"Galveston, Texas, Sept. 11.—It is my opinion based on personal information that 5,000 people lost their lives here. Approximately one-third of the residence property of the city has been swept away. There are thousands of people homeless and destitute. How many there are there is no way of finding out. Arrangements are being made to have the women and children sent to Houston and other places. But the means of transportation are limited. Thousands are still waiting for help. We appeal to you for immediate aid. (Signed) Walter C. Jones."

Mr. Jones is mayor of Galveston.

THOUSANDS DESTITUTE.

Austin, Tex., Sept. 11.—Official reports from Galveston to Governor Sayers today are that conditions there began to improve. It is thought that about 200 more are in an improvised morgue awaiting identification, and many more are thought to have drifted out to sea, and their identity will not be known for weeks.

A telegram from Adl. Scully, who is at Galveston for the government, is as follows: "Have just returned from Texas City with several Galveston parties, who assure me that conditions there began to improve. One thousand lives are too conservative. While a portion of the provisions have been destroyed by water, there is sufficient on hand to relieve immediate necessities. Citizens seem to have the situation well in hand. A number of troops and Company 'C' Volanteer Guard, with citizens patrol the streets to prevent looting. I requested W. B.

Looking To Peace

Chinese Ministers in the Capitals Negotiating With the Governments.

United States Will Probably Withdraw Her Troops from Peking.

They Will However Be Kept in Readiness to Return if Needed.

By Associated Press.

London, Sept. 10.—The Chinese minister in London, Sir Chih Chen Lo Feng, is understood to have received from Li Hung Chang a copy of the credentials emanating from the imperial household, appointing the plenipotentiaries to conduct the negotiations for peace, and laying down the conditions in relation thereto.

It is intimated that similar documents have been transmitted to the Chinese ministers at other capitals and that the credentials are such as will satisfy the American and European governments. The Chinese minister here is in conference with the foreign office officials this afternoon, when, it is understood, he handed in the credentials referred to. Sir Chih informed a representative of the Associated Press that he has received a decree similar to the one Mr. Wang Pang handed to the state department at Washington, and added that he personally transmitted the decree to the foreign office this afternoon.

AMERICA TO WITHDRAW.

Washington, Sept. 10.—The developments of the day in the East have led to a speedy withdrawal of the United States troops from China. Gen. Chaffee has added the weight of his opinion to that already expressed by other officials here. It probably is highly significant that the General's statement on this point was given publicly by the adjutant general.

No confirmation is at hand here of the report that Great Britain and Germany will join in an agreement to remain together in Peking, regardless of the attitude of the other powers. Should this be true, it would be a serious blow to the rearward movement of the American troops, for there is a firm determination to avoid becoming involved in a death struggle with the powers, such as might result from the execution of the American policy.

The part of the problem relative to the withdrawal of American troops is the best means of securing guarantees for the attainment of the few objects set out in Secretary Taft's memorandum, which have not yet been secured. Possibly guarantees must be obtained from two sides, from the Chinese government, as to the security of American treaty rights, and the creation of a claim commission, which shall provide for the payment of the losses suffered by American citizens and for the expenditures on account of the Peking relief work.

It is possible that the United States will be regarded as necessary, if any of the allies refuse to leave Peking and persist in their present attitude. The interests of the United States in the matter of trade of the "open door" and of all rights now guaranteed by treaty, be made a matter of special agreement between the United States and the powers.
