His Hats and Her Hats.

She—Did you ever stop to figure out how many hats in a year you could buy with the money you throw away on cigars? He—Sure I have, dear. I could buy about fifty for myself, but only about three for you!

Hardly.

"Why do girls wear engagement rings?" "On the same principle that a person ties a string around his finger—so they won't forget they're engaged."—Answers.

Blot out vain pomp; check impulse; keep reason under its own control.—Marcus Aurelius.

A Woman and $10.

You give a woman $10 and then borrow 72 cents from her and see what will happen. Two days later you casually inquire what has become of the $10. She tells you she has not had $10. You waive the question whether she ever had $10 and ask her if she has $10 now, and finally get a reluctant admission that she is penniless. Then you follow up the inquiry and discover that she has bought nothing. Then you are ready with the final charge, "What, then, did you do with the $10?" and that blessed woman will come back at you like this, "You gave me $10 and then borrowed it back." That is the way your 72 cents becomes a boomerang that smashes you and your $10 to smithereens. And yet, in spite of all, that same woman will hang on to 99 cents and get more out of it and make it do more things and spread it round over more clothes and keep it simmering like a bubbling spring—in short, take her all in all, a woman is the master financier of the world.

Chinese Dialects.

"It is absolutely impossible," writes a traveler recently returned from a tour of China, "to conceive of a nation speaking so many dialects as you will find in China. A foreigner's ability to speak Chinese is a practically worthless acquirement, as about every twenty-five miles the dialect changes to such an extent as to be practically another language, and even if you are speaking the best mandarin—the court language—you are quite apt to be told that your honorable foreign language is not understood. Even the governors of the provinces have to employ interpreters to communicate with the people they govern.

"It is a common joke among foreigners in China that the natives always indicate by signs what they intend to converse about before beginning to talk, and this is a joke with quite a grain of truth in it."

English Settles.

The "genuine English settlers" often offered in shops are viewed with discretion by travelers who have seen such belongings in old English farm-houses. On their native heath they are of solid oak, fully five feet high and running quite across the great kitchens. They are black with time and are apt to be well seasoned with ham fat. The duty of the settle is fourfold. It is the family seat, and, as the bench part can be raised, in the drawers beneath are kept the family rugs for weaving. Above the seat is the family hat rack. The upright is double, and in the recess thus formed the family bacon is hung, doors opening from behind into this cupboard. The dainty affairs we know as English settles are toys compared to the actual thing.

Forest Accountant Given Check for $500.

Forest, Aug. 23.—Mr. J. D. Livingstone, accountant with L. H. Smith & Co., bankers, yesterday completed his twenty-five years' service with the firm. To mark the event, the firm last evening presented him with a check for $500 as a token of their appreciation of his faithful services. Mr. Livingstone was a member of the town council for five years, and has filled the mayor's chair for one term.

One of the oldest residents of Point Edward in the person of George Pearson, father of Thos. Pearson, the G. T. E. tunnel depot, passed away Saturday at the Sarna General hospital after an illness of some duration. Mr. Pearson was aged 85 years and 3 months.

A Thamesville correspondent writes: Last Sunday evening in the Thamesville Methodist church the pastor, Rev. B. Fulton Irwin, suggested that the ladies remove their hats during the service. Those who did so found it to be a great relief, as the church was full and the evening very warm.

So many drownings among swimmers lead to discussion of the cause. A New York physician credits the theory of cramps, but expert swimmers declare a cramp in the calf of the leg causes excruciating agony which disables the victim and that is the true and only reason why so many disappear as if stricken by apoplexy or heart failure.

Ladies and gentlemen who take Miller's Compound Iron Pills always grow younger in appearance and spirits.—T. B. Taylor & Sons.

JUSTICE CLARKE has recently given a decision that original by-laws must be kept on file. Certified copies must not do, and should the original be lost, such by-laws become void. This is something municipal officers will do well to remember.

BOBBY had early showed a great interest in anatomy, and always drank in information about the various parts of the body most eagerly. One day he came to his mother in great perplexity and said: "I know where my liver is but where is my bacon?"

There can be a difference of opinion on most subjects, but there is only one opinion as to the reliability of Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator. It is safe, sure and effectual.

THE Toronto World has not yet been able to get a two cent rate on steam railroads, and is now turning attention to electric roads. A law was passed by the Ontario Legislature last session making two cents a mile the maximum rate on electric roads.

A LONDON township farmer named Manning was brought into the office of Dr. Hugh Stevenson, London, last evening with a sewing needle stuck in his throat. The needle has been dropped accidentally in some apple sauce, of which Manning partook. With the aid of Dr. X-ray it was found bedded well down in the throat, but with much difficulty was extracted.

Many young ladies who are supposed to be going into decline have been restored to health and vigor by the use of Miller's Compound Iron Pills.—T. B. Taylor & Sons.

WHEN Jim Fish was in his glory as a railroad magnate, one day he was greatly annoyed by people asking for passes over his roads for all sorts of reasons. He was well worked up, when a seedy individual asked for a pass, and asked, sharply: "On what grounds do you ask for a pass?" The applicant replied: "Because I do not want to pay my fare." Fish called a clerk and said to him: "Give this man a pass to anywhere and return. He is the first man that has told the truth to-day."

A CLEAR HEALTHY SKIN.—Eruptions of the skin and the blotches which blemish beauty are the result of impure blood caused by unhealthy action of the liver and kidneys. In correcting this unhealthy action and restoring the organs to their normal condition, Parmelee's Vegetable Pills will at the same time cleanse the blood, and the blotches and eruptions will disappear without leaving any trace.

In a Nutshell.

Here is a good story for a mothers' club meeting. It is told of the late General Hector Macdonald. Always a man of few words, when sending his only son to a public school for the first time he addressed the following brief note to the head master: "Herewith boy Hector, to be made a man of." A sentence worthy of being handed down to posterity as a remarkable example of brevity and sterling common sense.
