

7TH BYE-LAW.

Item—It is Ordained that if at any General Court any Seven of the Members present each having One hundred pounds Stock in his own name shall demand a Ballot for determining any question proposed, such questions shall be determined by Ballot and not otherwise.

8TH BYE-LAW.

Item—It is Ordained that in case neither the Governor nor Deputy Governor happen to be present at a Committee summoned to meet, it shall or may be lawful for five or more of the Committee, or the major part of them, to nominate and appoint one of themselves Chairman or President of the Committee for that day only, and every Order or Contract made by them shall be as valid and authentic, and every Warrant signed by them or any four of them shall be as effectual to all intents and purposes as if the Governor or Deputy Governor had been present.