

1897. Yukon Territory organized with Dawson as capital.
1898. Two cent postage adopted.
1900. Death of Premier Marchand, of Quebec; Parent, premier. Governor McInnis, of British Columbia, dismissed. Laurier government sustained at the polls. Hon. R. P. Roblin, premier of Manitoba.
1901. Queen Victoria died, and was succeeded by her son as Edward VII. Telegraph system extended to Yukon.
1902. Lord Dufferin died. Ross Government sustained by a small majority at the polls.
1903. Sir Oliver Mowat, Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario, died.
1904. Laurier Government sustained again at the polls.
1905. Ross Government suffers a crushing defeat at the polls. Mr. Whitney, premier, formed a government that met the House on 22nd of March. Parent, premier of Quebec, resigned, owing to ill health; Gouin, premier. The North-West Territories sub-divided into two provinces, named Saskatchewan and Alberta, with Regina as the capital of the former and Edmonton of the latter.