

ordinances was ordained to the Eldership, which office he worthily and actively filled to the day he rested from his labors."

In the frame building which still stands in good preservation, a large family was brought up, the wife and mother as shown by St. Andrew's old Record Book of 1794, was Ann Vansickle, remembered as a notable housekeeper, there were seven sons and five daughters, the eldest born in 1809, the youngest in 1832. The obituary notices to several of the family have been found and these show how the careful training of the sons by the father and mother had had such excellent results.

"Died at Galt Judge Miller, in his 81st year, almost the last of seven sons who made their mark in the history of Canada. Born in 1810, no less than three of the brothers William, John and Richard studied law achieving distinction. He leaves W. A. Miller, Q.C., Toronto, Henry Miller, Galt, Mrs. Z. A. Lash, Mrs. J. B. Lash, Miss Carrie Miller. The bar of the County of Waterloo passed a resolution referring to his manly, upright character, his able, upright and painstaking conduct as judge which won the respect and confidence of the people."

"Died at Galt, John Miller, aged 56, born in the District of Niagara, in 1813, educated at Niagara Grammar School, at seventeen years of age he entered the office of Judge Campbell, Niagara, and went to Galt in 1835, where his business was large and remunerative and he gained the confidence and favor of the community. He was the pioneer lawyer of Galt.

"Died in St. Catharines, aged 56, Richard Miller, Q.C., born at Niagara 1817 in "The Wilderness". He studied law with the late Judge Campbell and became his partner, removed to St. Catharines in 1850, Mr. Boomer being his partner. In his long career at the bar he gained a reputation for probity second to none, his integrity was unquestioned, kind hearted and considerate he handled with care and prudence alike the estate of the poor man and that of a millionaire. Peace to his ashes. The members of the bar attended the funeral and there were 60 carriages in the cortege."

"Died aged 71, at Peoria, Ill., Duncan Miller, M.D., born in 1827 in Niagara, he was predeceased by his six brothers

Mrs. Wynn died at Niagara aged 90.

A son of John Miller an M. D., died in California, the next son Judge Miller died in Winnipeg.

A son of Mrs. Lash is a lawyer in Toronto and Prof. Miller of the University is the Judge's grandson.

Mr. Miller was a lover of books as shewn by the large collection he had gathered (many of them of a religious nature.)
