WORLD'S FAIR, ST. LOUIS, MO.

Apr. 30 to Dec. 1st, '04

The largest exhibit place ever erected for a single department of an exposition is the Palace of Agriculture at St. Louis. The first exposition building ever set apart for education is the Palace of Education at St. Louis. To the classes of exhibits which were shown in the great Liberal Arts Building at Chicago, this Exposition devotes four of its main exhibit places, containing over twice the floor space of the Chicago building. A single building at St. Louis contains more exhibit space than there was in the entire Pan-American Exposition.

WORLD WIDE

A Weekly Reprint of Articles from Leading Journals and Reviews Reflecting the Current Thought of Both Hemispheres.

World Wide is a marvel of interest and cheapness as a high class eclectic; it will compare favorably with anything at several times its price. For the small sum of one dollar a year it brings, every week the best articles that appear during the week in the leading British, American, and Foreign publications. Of course it appeals to the thinking element in each community, those who want to know what the world thinkers are thinking; but these will find it as full of rare entertainment as of wisdom. It is absolutely world-wide in its interests and has no end to grind.

It will be sent free of charge to any address for a short time. The annual subscription price is $1.00, and the publishers OJEN DOUGALL & SON, of Montreal.
