SAID HE,

"THIS IS HORRIBLE, BILIOUS Spring Weather"

Said She, "I know it, almost everyone, no matter how well ordinarily, needs a thorough course of physic in the spring to cleanse the system of the accumulated humours caused by the indoor life of the winter months. No other remedy is so good as Kidney Wort for this purpose. It is a mild but efficient cathartic, and acting at the same time on the Liver, Bowels and Kidneys it relieves all these organs and enables them to perform their duties perfectly. Headaches, Biliousness, Jaundice, and all such spring diseases yield at once to its curative power."

SAID HE, after arguing a while,

"KIDNEY-WORT!"

YES, I WILL GET IT AT ONCE."

Said She, "Dr. Ballou says it is the best of all family medicines, for the following reasons. Because it is a remedy that cleanses the Liver, B.W. and Kidneys at the same time, making each efficient in aiding nature to throw off disease."

"Because it is a wonderful tonic and expels the poisonous humours from the liver, regulates the bowels, cleanses the kidneys to healthy action, and drives out the despondency and gloom of the health."

"Because it has been tried and proved. Its enormous sale is not caused by extravagant advertising and the persistent pushing of its name before the public on every rock, fence, and bridge, but the demand has been created by its own virtue, and the thousands of remarkable cures it has performed."

If you have trouble with your Kidneys, Liver, or Bowels, you will find it the remedy you need."

Said he, a week later

"Mary, you are an Angel"

for urging me to get that Kidney-Wort, it has fixed me so nicely that I believe all they claim, everyone should use it as a

SPRING CLEANSER."

INFLAMMATION OF BLADDER.

"Chronic inflammation of the bladder, of two years duration, was my wife's complaint," writes Doctor C. M. Sumner, of Sun Hill, Ga. "Her urine often contained mucus, pus, and was sometimes bloody. Physicians' prescriptions—my own included—and domestic remedies only palliated her pains. Kidney-Wort, however, has entirely cured her."

VITAL QUESTIONS!!

Ask the most eminent physician Or any school, what is the best thing in the world for quieting and allaying all irritation of the nerves and curing all forms of nervous complaints, giving natural, childlike refreshing sleep always? And they will tell you unhesitatingly "Some form of Hops!"

CHAPTER I.

Ask any or all of the most eminent physicians:

"What is the best and only remedy that can be relied on to cure all diseases of the kidneys and urinary organs; such as Bright's disease, diabetes, retention or inability to retain urine, and all the diseases and ailments peculiar to Women?"

"And they will tell you emphatically "Buchu."

Ask the same physicians "What is the most reliable and surest cure for all liver diseases or dyspepsia, constipation, indigestion, biliousness, malarial fever, ague, &c.," and they will tell you: "Mandrake! or Dandelion!"

Hence, when these remedies are combined with others equally valuable

And compounded into Hop Bitters, such a wonderful and mysterious curative power is developed which is so varied in its operations that no disease or ill health can possibly exist or resist its power, and yet it is Harmless for the most frail woman, weakest invalid or smallest child to use.

As the frosts of winter vanish under the caloric influence of the sun's ray, so does Bright's Disease, Dropsy, Stone in the Kidneys and Bladder, and Inflammation of the Kidneys, leave the body upon the administration of Dr. Van Buren's Kidney Cure.

A SECRET.—The secret of beauty lies in pure blood and good health. Burdock Blood Bitters is the grand key that unlocks all the secretions. It cures all Scrofulous Diseases, acts on the Blood, Liver, Kidneys, Skin and Bowels, and brings the bloom of health to the pallid cheek.

S. Wetherell, writing from Winnipeg, says: "I can say more about PHOSPHATINE now than when I saw you last in Toronto. My health is much improved, and I am free from headaches or any other aches, having only used two and a half bottles of your Phosphatine. For sale by all druggists."

No person can enjoy health while suffering Constipation of the Bowels. Harsh purgatives always do harm. Burdock Blood Bitters is Nature's own Cathartic; it unlocks the secretions, regulates, purifies and strengthens the system.

Among the ladies who may read this there may be several sickly ones who have made up their minds to act on the old saw which specifies that "What can't be cured, must be endured." While the truth of the old proverb is self-evident it is just possible they may have erred in judgment as to the possibilities of the healing art outside of the medical profession and before giving up in despair they had better test the efficacy of Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which is now attracting universal attention.

Diamond Dyes are so perfect and so beautiful that it is a pleasure to use them. Equally good for dark or light colours. 70 cents.

Words of the Wise.

THE unfortunate are always egotistical. I AM only glad, being praised, for what I know is worth the praising.—George Eliot. THOU hast made us, O Lord, for Thyself, and our hearts are restless until they rest in Thee.—St. Augustine.

GOD's laws were never designed to be like cobwebs, which catch the little flies but suffer the large ones to break through.—Matthew Henry.

What will it matter by and by, Whether with cheek to cheek I've lain Close by the pallid angel, Pain, Soothing myself through sob and sigh?—All will be otherwise, by and by!

What will it matter? Naught, if I Only am sure the way I've trod, Gloomy or gladdened, leads to God— Questioning not of the how, the why, If I but reach him, by and by. —Mrs. Margaret J. Preston.

I LOVE to think of my little children whom God has called to himself, as away at school—at the best school in the universe, under the best teachers, learning the best things in the best possible manner.—Dr. Ford "EVERY girl or woman who is occupied with household cares, should so arrange these, that she may spend a part of each day in absolute freedom from them and in the open air."—Hygiene for Girls.

THACKERAY said some foolish things, but he wrote solid truth in the remark, "The intimacy begotten over the wine bottle has no heart. I never knew a good feeling to come from it, or any honest friendship made by it. It only entices men and ruins them"

"No wonder," said Dr. Griffin, "that God hears prayers when it is the Holy Spirit that prays; and what an awful place is the Christian's closet. The whole Trinity are about at every time he kneels. There is the Spirit praying to the Father through the Son."

"To speak of women, who are enjoying what Jesus Christ secured to them in His kingdom, as degraded, is simply a perversion of the facts; Christ lifted her up, Christ holds her up to-day, and when, if ever, she lets go the hand of Christ, she will fall again into the mire and the slough."—Dr. Dix.

"SINCE the half of mankind die in infancy, and according to the Protestant doctrine, are heirs of salvation, and since in the future state of the Church the knowledge of the Lord is to cover earth, we have reason to believe that the lost shall bear to the saved no greater proportion than the inmates of a prison do to the mass of the community."—Dr. Chas. Hodge.

XENOPHEN relates that when an Armenian prince had been taken captive, with his princess, by Cyrus, and asked what he would give to be restored to his kingdom and liberty, replied, "As for my kingdom and liberty, I value them not; but, if my blood would redeem my princess, I would cheerfully give it for her." When Cyrus had liberated them both, the princess was asked, "What thought you of Cyrus?" She replied, "I did not observe him; my whole attention was fixed upon him who would have purchased my liberty with his life." To you that believe He is precious—"The One is together lovely."

"Teach me, my God and King In all things Thee to see; And what I do in anything, To do it as for Thee.

"All may of Thee partake; Nothing can be so mean, Which with this tincture—for Thy sake—Will not grow bright and clean.

"A servant with this clause Makes drudgery divine; Who sweeps a room, as for Thy laws, Makes that and the action fine!"

How beautiful and suggestive is the simple prayer which, it is said, the Breton sailors are wont to utter when launching on upon the heaving ocean: "Keep me, my God; my boat is so small, and 'thy ocean is so wide!" For God is just the same upon the waters as He is upon the land; the sea is His and He made it; though tempest come and in the wilderness of fierce floods death jaws blackly from every side, His power that stills the turbulent sea of Genesaret can drive His children from the wildest war of winds and waves. The prayer of the Breton fisherman becomes the prayer of every soul that has learned to revere, to obey, and to trust. "Keep me, my God; I am so weak and Thou so mighty; put underneath me Thy everlasting arms and I shall be upheld!"
