A very pleasant event took place on Friday evening, 20th inst., at the Manse, Dalhousie Mills, in honor of Dr. Walter C. Cattanach, when a few of his numerous friends met to offer him an address and a handsome gold-headed cane on his departure for Europe, with their sincere and hearty good wishes for his safe return to his native country at no very distant date.

Rev. Henry Knox, of the Presbytery of Barrie. issionary near mission sermons in St. Andrew's Church, Guelph, forenoon and evening of the 14th inst. In the afternoon he addressed the Sabbath school children of Chalmers Church. At one time Mr. Knox was well known in Paisley Block and Winterbourne as a school-teacher.

The handsome new edifice of the First Presby-terian Church, London, which has been erected on terian Church, London, which has been errected on the site of the old structure opposite Victoria Park, at the corner of Park and Dufferin Avenues, was on Jan. 21, opened for divine worship. Rev. Dr. Caren, of Knox College, preached morning and evening, while the popular pastor of the church. Rev. W. J. Clarke, occupied the pulpit in the afternoon with his usual ability. All three services were largely attended, the seating expacity of the building being tested to its full extent. The building, which is situated in one of the finest residential sections of the city, is one of the handsomest and most elethe city, is one of the handsomest and most ele-gantly-fitted places of worship among the many time churches in London.

The Manse, Bristol, Que., was invaded Monday evening, Jan. 8th, by a party of the congregation, who did so to present the pastor and his wifer (Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Nelson) with an address and a beautiful and costly raw-silk and red plush spring rocking chair. Baskets were also brought and a very pleasant social time was spent. It was a complete sur-prise as well as kind expression of good feeling.

Mr. James Cranston, a student of Knox College, preached in Chalmers Church, Guelph, on Sabbath the 21st inst. Mr. Cranston gave a very interesting discourse on the work being carried on by the students of Knox College Missionary Society, in the Muskoka, Algoma, Nipissing, and other newly opened out stations in the Dominion, even the Rockies in British Columbia, on the line of the C.P. R. The work had been very successful.

A great work is being done for the poor in Vancouver. The ministers of the diff rent congrega-tions in the city have met on the broad platform of common humanity and have formed a combine for the purpose of helping the deserving poor through the hard times. A Catholic priest is the secretary of the combine, an Episcopalian minister the chair-man, a Presbyterian pastor handles the cash. They have applied to the citizens of Vancouver to con-tribute money or clothes. An auctioneer has vol-unteered to sell the clothes by auction free, and merchants have provided rooms to store the articles

Mr. Papineau, who is pursued by the Minerve for apostasy, is really of Huguenot descent. His ancestors escaped from Poiton, where the severity of the church was directed against the Huguenots. Coming to England some of them entered into trade. There is a firm in London engaged in the manufacture of chemicals, the head of which are Papineaus. It is stated that a branch of the Papineaus were members of the Reformed Church in Paris. Papin members of the Reformed Church in Paris. Papineau's father was always imbued with the spirit of freedom. He once declared on the floor of the old Canadian Parliament that it was to Luther the world owed its liberty of conscience, a speech that angered his associates at the time, and caused no little sensation.

At the morning service in Chalmers' Church Guelph, on Sabbath the 14th inst., the Rev. Dr. Wardrope, the emeritus pastor of the church, preached an able sermon on the second coming of the Loid, in compliance with the programme of the week of prayer. At the close of his sermon he was inducted an elder of the church, by the Rev. Dr. Torrance, having been elected to that office along with the other elders, who had been inducted some weeks ago, at which time Dr. Wardrope was absent. The Doctor in the course of his address remarked that it was very rare that a m.nister, after giving up his charge in a congregation, had been made an e'der of the same. The services throughout were of a very interesting character.

The anniversary services of North Luther Presbyterian Church were held on Sabbath the 14th inst. The attendance at all the services was very large. The Rev. D. MacVicar, B.A., of Amos and Knox Church, Normandy, preached with great acceptance to a large audience, both morning and evening. The Rev. D. M. Ramsay, B.D., of Mount Forest, preached to a crowded house in the afternoon. The collections were in aid of the building fund and amounted to $58.00. The anniversary tea meeting was also held on the following evening. The speaking was of a very high order and the music ex-cellent. The pastor, Rev. H. McKellar, presided. The proceeds of the evening, $90.00, leaves the new the church now free of debt-

The new Presbyterian Churchat Port Daniel was lately opened for public worship. The church was lately opened for public worship. The church was well filled with a very attentive and devout congregation. Rev. J. M. Sutherland, pastor of the congregation, offered the dedicatory prayer. Rev. A. F. Carr, of Campbellton, then preached a sermon appropriate to the occasion. The Pr. Daniel people deserve much credit for the commodious and comfortable church which they have erected. They constitute only a small section of the congregation of New Carlisle and yet within a year and a half they have built this church at a cost of $1500, and it is completely free from debt. In the evening the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was dispensed in New Carlisle. Rev. Mr. Sutherland is abundant in labors and is much encouraged by the sympathy and co-operation of his congregation.

In the First Church, Port Hope, on Sabbath the 14th inst., the interesting service was held of the ordination and induction of seven additional elders: The Rev. J. S. Henderson (formerly pastor of the Presbyterian Church, Charlotte, New York Statel, Mesurs. James Craick, William Williamson. Peter Brown, E. H. Fogarty, Andrew Jameson, Vincent Coleman, making the staff of elders now 15. The annual meeting of the congregation was held on the following evening. The additions to the church during the past year have been 69, with 20 removals. The role is now 336. Gratilying reports were given of the growth of the Sabbath School, which has reached a larger attendance than ever before; of the financial condition of the church, of the subscriptions for the new lot on which to erect a church and Sabbath School, of In the First Church, Port Hope, on Sabbath the which to erect a church and Sabbath School, of the increased contributions to missions, of the excellent work of the Ladles' Aid, the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, the Mission Band, the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor, the choir, and the Sabbath School and Congregational Temperance Societies.

The Missionary services on Sunday the 14th inst., in St Paul's Church, Bowmanvile, were of a most interesting character. Mr. Neil McPherson, M.A., an old Bowmanville boy, who is at present taking a post-graduate course at Queen's College, occupied the pulpit in the morning. His discourse, a very able one. was mostly occupied with a description of the condition of the Indian and Chinese population of British Columbia, and of mission work among them. Mr. McPherson spent the summer in an outthem. Mr. McPherson spent the summer in an outpost missi in in Vancouver Island and made a study of the Indians and Chinese on the spot. Rev. J. MacVicar, B.A., of Honan, China, spoke in the evening. Although of a different type in personal appearance from his distinguished father, Principal MacVicar, of Montreal, and a different style of de-livery, he is a no less powerful speaker, and is gift-ed with rare descriptive power.

There was a good attendance of the members and adherents of the North Bruce and St. Andrew's, Saugeen, congregations to witness the interesting ceremony of the induction of the Rev. H. Mc-Quartic into the pastorate of the charge. The Rev. Quartic into the pastorate of the charge. The Rev. George Maclennan, of Pinkerton, preached an able and appropriate sermon and addressed the minister. Mr. Fuzpatrick, of Underwood, presided and Mr. Anderson, of Tiverton, gave much wholesome advice to the congregation. The settlement of Mr. McQuarrie is a most happy event; there being unusual unanimity among the people in making the selection. Mr. McQuarrie brings to the work the exocuence of a successful ministry elsewhere in experience of a successful ministry elsewhere in both town and country churches. We wish him the success that his high ability and devotedness in his cilling would naturally lead one to expect. The people are to be congratulated in securing the services of one so eminently qualified for ministering to them in such important interests. May the tie formed he both enduring and happy.

O 1 Wednesday evening, 17th January, the congregation of St. Andrew's, Campbellford, held its annual meeting. There was an extra large attendance of members. The pastor, Rev. Marcus Scott, B.A., acted as chairman. All the reports were of a most satisfacory nature and showed that the congregation was full of life and activity. Last year ome four hundred dollars were raised in excess of the former year. The reports also showed that good work was being done in all departments of the chu ch's life, and there was everywhere seen the earnest desire to do still better work in the future. Appeals were made to the men of the congregation to throw themselves more heartily into the work, and to avail themselves more of the services of the sanctuary. The pastor, in a few closing words of counsel, advised all to work more extractly and prayerfully, so that all the work of the congregation might be performed as it ought to be. Altegether the meeting was one of the heartiest and most harmonious ever held by the congregation.

most harmonious ever held by the congregation.

The fifth anniversary service of the C.E. Union, Hamilton, was held in the First Methodist Church on the evening of the 15 h inst. There was a large and enthusiastic gathering. The retiring President, Mr. Robertson, presided over the meeting Mr. Cook's annual report showed the societies in the Hamilton Union to be in a prosperous condition and that six new societies were added to the union during the past year. The report also referred to the work of the Junior Society, which had increased during the year from five societies to eighteen, with a membership of nearly 800, and they are thereased during the year from his societies to eighteen, with a membership of nearly 800, and they are formed into a distinct and separate union, doing good work. In the Young People's Union there are nearly 2,000 members, and yet there is much more to do. The Treasurer's report showed that $224.61 had been raised during the year, and that $236.64 had been paid out, leaving a balance of
