“The Philatelic Courier,

And Stamp Collector's Journal,”

of which a few files remain on hand, I offer volumes I, II and III for $3.50 to philatelic friends.

The advertising supplement to the “Courier” is one of the best mediums to reach philatelists as it circulates in all quarters of the globe. Collectors and dealers wishing to increase their business should engage space. The charge for advertising is only 35 cents per inch. This offer is made to philatelists only. All advertisements in other lines will be subject to special arrangements. Payment must in all cases accompany the “copy” or no notice will be taken of it. Guaranteed circulation 3,000.

Stamps of British North America are a specialty with me.

✉ Correspondence in English, French, German and Spanish.
