MONTREAL NOTES.

At a congregational meeting field in Nor-wood churen on Monday evening, Dec. 20th, a unanimous call was extended to the Rev. W. f. Morrison, of Stc. Hieresc. The congregation has subscribed the sum of six numered dollars towards his supend, but it is noped that from other sources the amount may be made up to eight hundred. This congregation was formerly part of the charge of tote dea Neiges, but was separated from it on the resignation of the Rev. Mr. Crombie sometem months ago. The resident memor: hip is not large, but the place has become a favorite summer resort. Being easily accessible to the city, many families spend at least a x months of the year there and these have interested themselves in getting a settled pastor, some of them faving subscribed liberally towards his salary. During the summer months two services will be held each Sunday. During the winter when one service only will be held it is expected that the minister will preach at Petite Cote in the evening. In the event of Mr. Morrison accepting the call his settlement will take place at an early date.

On Thursday, the 23rd inst, the Sunday school teachers and scholars of Erskine church gave a Christinas Tree entertainment to some thirty needy families, who had been tavited to tea in the basement of the church. There was a short programme of vocal and instrumental music after tea and then the distribution took place. There was a turkey for each family and abundance of toys for the children as well as articles of more permanent value that had been donated for the intresse.

Dr. Chimquy now in his eighty-eighth year recently made a fecturing tour through Massachusetts addressing meetings in Boston, New Bostord, and a number of other places, it's spoke twice in Tremont Temple, libeton, to addreness of between two and three thousand and held their close attention for over an neur. Unfortunately he took rather too many engagements and somewhat overtaxed his strength so that he has been laid up since returning, but is now convalescent and in good spirits. Prof. Moore, of Boston, who is well-known as a popular fecturer on accentific and instorical subjects, is his guest for a tew days at the present time, and speaks enthusiastically of the interest croated by his appearances in New England.

Another successful concert was given by the choir of St. Matthew's Prescyterian Laurch, againted by Mrs. Belle Fose Emsite, electionist; Miss Kenmure, soprane, and Mesers. J. R. Bain, tenor, Mr. Penald Rebertson, a well known Souten numerishma Mr. Catheart Wallace, violinist. The various elections by Mrs. Catheart Wallace, and vocal selections by Mrs. Catheart Wallace, and vocal selections by Mrs. Catheart Wallace, and vocal selections by Miss Kenmure and Mr. Bain and Mr. Robertson. The anthems "Hait to the Chief" and "Praw the Sword, Scotland," by the choir, were received with favor, also the quarteties by Mrs. Peacock, Miss Stoba and Messrs. Anderson and McNelisge, and the Misses Forrester and Sheppard, Messrs Peacock and Reid. Solve were also rendered by the Misses Gray and Hodgaon, which gave much pleasure. The success of the concerted credit upon the organist and enuit leader, Mr. L. Neut Peacock. Miss Madel Rolle presided at the piano. The chair was occupied by the Riv. W. R. Crinkshauk. The proceeds of the concert are in aid of the 1 nurch Building Fund.

A very successful musical and social entertainment was hold Introday in Na. Gisles Presbyterian Church, corner of Carriero and Na. Peniestreets. Mr Carria, who acted an chairman, in a few well-chosen words, we control ail present in the name of the board of managers, who intended this meeting to be the means of making the members of the steadily growing congrugation become better acquisinted with one another. The programme was a very good one. The choir, under the direction of Mr. Rice, rendered in good style, "Hesanna in the Highest' and "O'Itana." The recitations of Miss Bennett were especially well received, so also were the soles of Miss Mulitosh, Master M. J. Rice, and Mossis. Hyams and Roberts. The "Young Brigade," by Mr. G. E. Hardie, deserved the greatest praise, and was repeatedly encored. The Rev. J. R. Dobson, B. D., in his address, duelt upon the importance of sociability among the members of the congregation. White refreshments were served the Alisses Steele and Blair, Dr. Fraser and Mr. J. Rice gave some beautiful selections on the pranoforte.

The classes in the Presbyterian College closed on Friday last and most of the students are now dispersed to their ron sor to various mission fields in the country where their visits are often a welcome break in the monotony of cilent Sabbaths.

BRITISH COLUMBIA NOTES

A Thanks-giving social was recently held under the suspices of the Ladies' Aid of St. Androw's Church, Victoria, when the chair was occupied by His Honor Lieut.-Governor McInnes. While under heavy tinancial obligations the congregation over a year ago decided to raise all its revenue by free will offerings. Experience has abundantly proved the wisdom of the course.

Steps are being taken to hold a series of union evangelistic meetings, early in the new year, both in Vancouver and Victoria. The Ministerial Associations in both cities are heartily leading in these preparations and Dr. L. W. Munnall has been invited to lead the campaign. May he come to us in the fulness of the blessing of the Gospel of Christ and may many occupied with the search of this worlds gold find, through this instrumentality, the true riches.

Mr. J. G. Brown the well known Scotch vocalist and leader of the choir of the First Church, Victoria, was tendered a benefit concert in the A.O.U.W. Hall, on the 20m inst. The leading entertainers of the city contributed the grogramme while a crowded house testified to the esteem in which Mr. Brown is field. On the following evening oring his eightieth firthday the Venerable Bishop Uriage of the Reformed Episcopal Church, upon whom the Senate of the Preschitentan Cyllege, Montreal, in 1895 conferred the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity, was given a public reception when a well filled purse and several addresses were presented by his numerous admirers throughout the province.

Success still follows the step of the Klondyke missionary. The latest word from nim was an order for Christmas presents for the pupils of his Sunday school at Skagway which already has an enrolment of thirty.

The Presbytery of Victoria met in St. Paula Church Victoria on the 7th Inst. New mission work was projected and every effort made to bring Gospel ordinances within the roach of all our settlers. Deputations were appointed to visit all congregations and mission fields within the bounds. Rev. Prof. Bryce LL.D., of Manicoba College was nominated for the moderacoramp of the next General Assembly. A conference preceded the business sessions of the Prosbytery when several questions of a practical nature were discussed.

GENERAL.

Inc proposal to divide the Presbytery of Quebec so as to term two Presbyteries, has been abandoned by 1.2 pr. meters.

The third auniversary of the opening of the Presbyterian church, at Bridgeport, C. B., was observed on the 19th inst. The pastor, Rev. J. A. McGlasnen, was assisted by Rev. Anderson Rogers, B.A., of New Glasgow, who preached the dadicatory sermon three years ago. The collection netted $100.

Rev. Mr. Nichol, pastor of Albert St. church, Sarnis, has not enjoyed good health for some time past, and on Sabbath, Dec. 19th, was seized with a fainting spell and tell to the floor a few minutes after he had commenced his sermion. Mr. Nichol has the sincere sympathy of a large number of friends, who hope for his speedy recovery to health and strength.

In the congregation of Blue Monntain and Garden of Eden, Presbytery of Pictou, N.S., not only every family, but with one exception every communicant and almost every adherent, together with many of the boys and girls contributed, according to the local press, "a something" to the Schemes of the Church during the current year. This is approaching the ideal church. Rev. D. Henderson, a Pine Hill graduate of five or six years standing, is pastor.

A very largely-attended meeting of the elders and board of management of Zion church, Brantford, was held on Wednesday evening, Doc. 15th, to consider the question of appointing an assistant minister to Rev. Dr. Cochrane. Those present favored the proposed step and the matter will probably come up again at the annual meeting of the congregation, in February. The memberants of Zion church is now about SSO. At the last Communion services tifty new members were received.

A public meeting will be held in St. James Squaro churen, Toronto, this (Pursday) evening to designate Rev. A. S. Grant who has been appointed by the Assembly's Home Mission Committee to the Klondyke. Rev. Drs. Cochrane, Robertson and Warden and Rev. A. S. Grant are expected to address the meeting. It is estimated that from $3,000 to $10,000 will be required to initiate the work in the Klondyk. Mr. Grant will leave for his new field of labor about the first of the year.

The anniversaty services in connection with Bethel church, Farewell, were observed on Sabbath, Don. 19th. The Rev. D. M. Ramsay, B.D., Ottawa, (their old pastor) preached excellent sermons both morning and evening, and the Rev. A. H. Kippan, of Tara, in the attenuous, to large and appreciative congregations. On Monday afternoon and evening a very successful entertainment was given which was largely attended, and a very good time spent. The programme was nightly appreciated. The proceeds amounted to over $130.

amounted to over $130.

The anniversary of the Presbyterian church in Nanamo, Man., was held on Sabbath, the 12th inst., when the Rev. Mr. Pitbiado, of Winnipeg, conducted the services, preaching two excellent and appropriate discourses to large and approciative audiences, especially in the evening. Mr. Barkie, paster of the congregation, supplied Mr. Pitbiado's pulpit in Winnipeg. On Monday evening the ladies of the congregation held their annual social which was very successful in every respect, after which Mr. Pitbiado delivered his oclebrated lecture on "Buros and Ian Melaren" which gave great satisfaction.
