

Common Cockchafer," C. E., Vol. VI., p. 67. His subsequent papers were the following :—

"List of Diurnal Lepidoptera collected in the Northwest Territories and the Rocky Mountains in 1883," C. E., XV., 221; XVI., 56, 224; XVII., 120; one hundred and twenty-six species were enumerated.

"Euptoieta Claudia," C. E., XVII., 60 (1885).

"Notes on Three Small Collections of Diurnal Lepidoptera, made in 1886" [These were made in Newfoundland, the Kamanistiquia River, Lake Superior, and Hudson Straits], C. E., XVIII., 204.

"Some Notes on the Genera Colias and Argynnis whilst alive in the Imago State," C. E., XIX., 166 and 230 (1887).

"Notes for Collectors visiting the Prairies and Rocky Mountains," C. E., XXI., 57 (1889).

"Colias Chione," C. E., XXI., 59.

He also contributed the following articles to the Annual Reports of the Society :—

"Some Remarkable Captures in Ontario," 18th Report, 1877, page 21.

"On Some of the Collections in England and the German Empire," 22nd Report, 1891, p. 31.

"Insects Collected in Bermuda during the Winter of 1894," 25th Report, 1894, p. 25.

In addition to his love for Entomology, he took a great interest in Philatelics, and formed a large and valuable collection of postage stamps. He was an accomplished musician, and usually sang in the choir of the church that he attended; he was also a member of the Philharmonic Society of Toronto. He belonged to the Masonic Order, in politics was a strong Conservative, and in religion a member of the Church of England. His wife, who was a daughter of the late Edward C. Jones, of Toronto, died a little more than a year ago. The untimely death of Capt. Geddes was no doubt hastened by her loss. They have left two little orphan girls, aged three and five years respectively.

The writer, who knew him intimately from his boyhood, deeply deplores his loss, and his grief is shared in by a very large circle of relatives and friends.
