

"Perseverance I particularly respect; it is the very hinge of all virtues." On looking over the world, the cause of nine parts in ten of the lamentable failures which occur in men's undertakings, and darken and degrade so much of their history, lies not in the want of talents, or the will to use them, but in the vacillating and desultory mode of using them, in flying from object to object, in starting away at each little disgust, and thus applying the force which might conquer any one difficulty to a series of difficulties so large that no human force can conquer them.—Carlyle.

BETHPAGE.—The meaning of this word is "house of figs." Bethpage was a place on the Mount of Olives, on the road between Jericho and Jerusalem, and apparently near to Bethany. It is mentioned only in connection with the sending of the two disciples for a colt on which Jesus rode when making His triumphal entry into Jerusalem.
