TEWKESBURY ALMSHOUSE. Bostos, Mass., April 3 .- The investigation into the Tewkesbury almehouse was resumed this moraing. Miss Manning testified that she got so much epiece for transporting boxes, the contents of which she did not know. The man she employed drove the waggon. She took up business after the death of her brother, who was previously engaged in it. Thomas Marsb, Jr., paid for this work. The latter thought it would be inconvenient to have the work done by anybody else, so she took it up. Mrs. Charlotte Thomas, in charge of certain departments of the almshouse, testified that Dr. Peaso (female), who treated the patients, evidently did not know her business, and that three patients lost their lives through her treatment. Witness had difficulty in getting clothes from Mrs. Marsh to lay out the dead, and heard inmates complain that good clothing had been taken from them. When a father came for the body of a child, a block of wood was put into the coffin and service held over that. The face of an insano girl laid out was exact by rate. Three hundred and iwenty-five pounds of butter was made per month; one pound a day was given to the inmates and the balance went to Captain Marsh. Skim milk was given to the inmates until forbidden by the inspectors. Witness had been told by Alrs. Marsh to take flauncle from the women when she knew it would endanger their health. When company was expected a wonderful change was made and everything put in the best possible condition.

THE CATTLE TRADE.

Chevense, W.T., April 3 .- At a meeting of the Wyoming Stock Growers' Association, it was reported that last year 220,000 best cattle were inspected, an increase of 52 000 over the previous year. About a thousand bead were killed by the Union Pacific Rallway. Berch of breeding cattle are selling 25 per cent higher than inst year. Thirty millions of Sectch and English capital was invested during the year.

THE PASSION PLAY. New York, April 3 .- Salmi Morse undertook to produce the Passion Play this evening for the benefit of the Home for Poor Children, an entrance fee being charged. The Templo was crowded. A few minutes before 8 o'clock the police served upon Morse an injunction sued cut by the Society for the Reformation of Javenile Delinquents, restraining the production of the play. Morse informed the audience, and the announcement was greeted with hisses. Morse's counsel made a speech denouncing the proceeding as an outrage and trampling on civil and religious liberty. The uffidavit ou which the injunction was granted was made by Mr. J. J. Fitzgerald, and declared that the performence was a disgrace to religiou and was to be given in an unificenced place. The matter comes before Judge Donohue on April 11th.

Consul at Liege has sent to the State Department a remarkable report on the adulterations of American goods, and German products in Germany and Austria. The report will doubtless, form an important part in the discussions as to retaliatory legislation susingt Germany for the edict against American pork. The Consul assects that nearly all articles exported from Germany are adulterated, and says that clother, sold from smull-pox patients and bospitals, are used as rage. American petrol-um is adulterated into three grades, greatly diluted and sold as genuine America c.

TESTIMORIALS FROM THOSE WHO HAVE

CROSSES and CRUCIFIXES

MONSIEUR—As the Star of the East led and guided the magi to our Redeemer's feet, so does the crucifix treated with your compound, in the darkness of my chamber, in the solemnity of the night, lead my soul from earth to heaven, where in eternal glory reigns the Being whose emblem shines and overshadows my sleeping moments. Yours in X,

From the New York Correspondence of the Dublin Freeman's Journal, Februars 16, 1881.

Through the courtesy of Mr. J. R. Maxwell & Co., proprietors of M. Cerqui's Chemical Compound, we were favored with a private view of one of the most wonderful discoveries of the century. I was led into a room, the curtains were drawn and every ray of light was excluded, and in the darkness, where first I saw only plain plaster figures, there stood out in clear, bright, awe-inspiring distinctness, first the figure of the Saviour suspended in space, as it were, then os either side the figures of Mary and Joseph, while looming up in the foreground was the figure of an angel bearing a crown that seemed to rain light. If ever a feeling of faith and veneration possessed a Catholic, it then overwhelmed the writer, the scene was so novel and reverential. Upon leaving we were presented with a cross; it is kept on a bracket in our chamber, and in the larkness of night it seems to say, sleep safe, Ilis cross watches and guards you.

We also have the honor to refer to the following Clergymen and Sisters: Rev. Thos. Kierns, Lehigh Avenue, Philadelphia, Pa.; Rev. J. Slattery, Susquehanna, Pa.; Rev. J. Murphy, Blossburg, Pa.; Rev. M. Voigt, Franciscan College, Trenton, N.J.; Rev. T. Reardon, Easton, Pa.; Convent of Good Shepherd; Baltimore, Md.

$1.00 EACH!

If you possessed a Cross or any religious object trented with this compound, you will readily see how much satisfaction and with what a reverential feeling such an object would be viewed at pight, when darkness and silence reign supreme, then like protecting figures, insignias of our taith, beautifully bright, uninfluenced by the surrounding gloom, they are an inspiration for the last thought or word before sleep overcomes us.

We are now manniacturing such Crosses, and a number of different Statuettes, Crucifixes, and the usual Church Ornaments, and treating them with this wonderful compound. We also desire to inform you that we are prepared to treat, at a nominal cost, any articles of a like nature you may wish to have rendered as distinct at night as they are during the day.

• For $1.00 we will send you a Cross, including pedestal, possessing this desirable quality, confident that after once witnessing the sceling it inspires, looming up like a torch of faith in the clackness of night, you will order more, and urge upon your friends the satisfaction the possession one gives in the silent hours of the night.

> $1.00 each for Crosses. $3.00 for Crucifixes, 9-inch figure. $3.00 " 17 " Crosses 89.00 per dozen, or $5.00 per half dozen.

Send money by Registered Letter and we send Crosses free of charge. J. R. MAXWELL & CO.
