SULLIVAN ON THE WAR-PATH.

EAN FRANCISCO. San Francisco, Jan. 30 .- The John L. Sullivan boom was a failure in this city, owing to bad business management. The street parade of the champion slugger took off the edge of curiosity. After the roughs and toughs of the town had seen him on the street and in his hotel, their curlosity subsided, and they refuse to pay to witness his performances. The Boston man was highly incensed by the slim audience attending his show, and gave such a poor display that those present manifested their disapprobation. Thereupon the champion threatened to clean out the whole house. The combination is going from here to Texas, and the prophets all declare that if John doesn't moderate his tone he'll come to some bad end or form the central figure in some dire tragedy.

The sudden change in temperature from a heated ball room to the chill midnight air has to account for many serious pulmonary allments. European physicians have recommended JOHNSON'S FLUID BEEF, and it is now the correct thing at fashionable parties to have it served bot in the hall as guests are eaving.

One reason wby a Detroit wife desires a divorce is because her husband lied to her. Before marriage he said he owned a one-horse wagon and had $260. After marriage he could only claim the wagon, and ene wheel was gone at that.

UNUSUAL BUBGERY.

A BULLET THAT WENT PARTLY THROUGH A MAN'S HEAD TAKEN QUITE THROUGH.

Naw York, Jan. 30 .- Bruno Knorr, a Garman, 21 years old, is alive and conscious at Believue Hospital with a bullet hole through his brain and a rubber tube in the hole. The ends of the tube project both at the forehead and at the back of the head. Knorr shot bimself at the corner of Flity-second street and Second avenue on Thursday last. The bullet, of 32 calibre, plerced his skull just on the central line between his eyes. Dr W. F. Fluher, one of the consulting surgeons at the hospital, and Dr. Robert P. Morris, the house surgeon probed for the bullet. They found that it had passed through the brain, taking a course slightly upward and to the leit. It was impossible to remove the bullet by the way which it bad entered, and Dr. Finher decided that the best thing to do was to cut a hole through the skull at the back of the head where the bullet was lodged, and get it out that way. The difficulty was in determining the exact location of the bullet. Dr. Fluber, by means of the probe, got the general direction that the ball had taken, and formed his judgment by it. The bair was cut from the back of Knorr's head, and a hole the size of a cent was cut through the skull. The instrument used was a trephine, which is a cylindrical saw, with a handle like that of a gimlet. It was placed against the skull and worked round and round until a circular hole was out. The builet was removed through this hole. A rubber drainage tube was then passed through the brain, its ends projecting an inch through the hole cut by the bullet, and an inch through the hole made by the trephine. The operation, which was witnessed by nearly the whole stiff of the hospital, lasted four hours.

Knorr on Saturday and Sunday was stupid and partially unconscious. At times he managed to give monosyllable answers to questions. Yesterday he was much brighter, and could talk and feed himself. His right arm seems to be paralyzed. There is little doubt expressed as to his ultimate recovery, HE PROPOSES TO "CLEAN OUT" HIS AUDIENCE AT | as there is no inflammation or hemorrhage.

A MILLIONAIRE'S SUDDEN FREAK. CINCIRNATI, Jan 30 .- Nicholas Longworth ex.Judge of the Ohio Supreme Court, the only son of the late Jos. Longworth, by whose will he has just come into property in this city worth $10,000,000, was one of the principals to-day in a little episode which is the talk of the cinbs this evening. Judge Longworth, in a slightly convival mood, stepped into the studio of Matt Morgan, the well known artist, to mest some friends. He wore a magnificent sealskin overcost and cap of the same material, for which he recently paid $450. Forny, the artist was in the studio at the time. The two men stood in the middle of the room engaged in conversation, while Matt Morgan, from his desk in a corner, drew a rapid sketch of Judge Longworth, bringing out the sociekin overcoat and cap in a very graphic manner. Be-fore leaving the studio the sketch was shown to Longworth by one of his friends. The likeness was a striking one, and Judge Longworth was delighted with it. He knew at once that it was the work of Morgan, and, hastily removing the overcost, he seized the artist by the arm, lifted him to his feet, and buttoned the rich garment about his shoulders.

Then removing his cap, he slapped it on Morgan's head with the remark : "Here, Matt, any one who can draw like that takes the goods."

Morgan protested, but it was no use, and Judge Longworth left him, declaring that he would never speak to him again if he did not keep the overcoat and cap. He then looked about the room and, finding an old straw bat covered with paint, he placed that on his
