To Dyspeptics.

The most common signs of Dyspepsia, or Indigestion, are an oppression at the stomach, nausen, flatulency, water-brash, heart-burn, vomiting, loss of appeties, and constination. Dyspeptic patients suffer untold miseries, bodily and mental. They awing stimulate the digestion, and secure regular daily action of the bowels, by the Ose of moderate doses of Ayer's Pills.

After the bowels are regulated, one of these Pills, taken each day after dinner, is usually all that is required to complete the cure.

ATER'S PILLS are sugar-coated and purely vegetable - a pleasant, entirely safe, and reliable medicine for the cure of all disorders of the stomach and bowels. They are the best of all purgatives for family use.

USEFUL DOMESTIC RECEIPTS.

A most appetizing a lad is made by shaving cabbage about as fine as it is possible to shave it. Sprinkle white mustard seed over it, using enough, so that there will be a disit, using enough, so that there will be a dis-tinct mustard flavor. An ounce of seed to one small head of cabbage will do. One or two yellow peppers should be jut into very small slices and added; pour cold vinegar over all, add a little salt and sugar, and then let it stand for a day or two, so that the cab-hage and pepper are really pickled. This may be packed in jars or be put into cans and kept all winter. It is nice with oysters or with cold meats.

or with cold meats. A very plain pudding, but one which is nice if caten with a good sauce, is made of three parts of bread crumbs rolled quite fine, one parts of bread crumbs rolled quite fine, one part tart applies chopped about as for mince pies, and one part raisins and English currants, either chopped or whole, as your taste may dictate, a tablespoonful of salt, and water to moisten sufficiently are all the ingredients required. Mix well together, and steam for two hours; serve hot with a rich salt, and steam for two hours; serve hot with a rich sauce, taking the precaution to make the sauce aweeter than is usual, as the pudding is not sweetened at all.

not sweetened at all.

This receipt for the stuffing for a goose is contributed by one who has tried it and pronounces it excellent: Take four large apples, four onions of medium size, four leaves of sage, and a teaspoonful oi parsley. After peeling apples and onions, and removing the cores from the apples, boil all these ingredients in a saucepan with just water enough to cover them. When soft, rub them through a sieve and add mashed potatoes, well seasoned sieve and add mashed potatods, well seasoned and very dry, until you have sufficient for your purpose. Whether this rule or the more common one of the bread crumbs, a little salt pork, and herbs is used, take special pains to have the stuffing of even quality—that is, have no lumps, and be sure that the seisoning is equally distributed; it requires a good deal of delicate manipulation to make a palatable, not to say appetizing stuffing.

Oyster fritters are made thus: to one cup of sweet milk allow two eggs, with flour chough to make a thick batter; salt and pepper to suit the taste must be added. Chop the oysters—and about this you must consult your own taste—for some good cooks cut them only in halves, while others chop them fine. Have hot lard or beef drippings in a small but deep kettle; drop the datter into licate brown.

Pies made of apple butter are highly re-commended. For one pie take half a cup—a good large half cup of sugar, one-third of a tenspoonful of allspice, and sweet milk to make the requisite quantity for one pie.

Bake with a lower crust only.

Constant complaints and inquiries are heard from housekeepers concerning moths, had it does not seem to be understood by all that fresh air and light will do a great deal to prevent their propagating and their working also. No room should be kept constantly the house should have daily charge of air. If this does not prevent moths from beginning work, vigorous measures must be taken. If work, vigorous measures must be taken. It you fear that they are at work at the edge of the carpet, it will sometimes suffice to lay a cloth, and press a hot flat-iron over it, but the best way is to take the carpet up, and clean it, and give a good deal of attention to the floor. Look in the cracks; and if you discover sizes of mether week to floor. if you discover signs of moths, wash the floor with benzine, and scatter red pepper on it before putting the carpet lining down. A dingy oileath may be brightened by washing it with clear water with a little horax dissolved in it; wipe it with a florned cloth that you have dipped into milk, and then rub it as dry as possible.

OLD FEUDS REVIVED GENERAL SHERMAN THREATENS JEFF

DAVIS. Sr. Louis, Nov. 25 .-- In a speech here a few weeks ago, General Sherman said secession was merely a conspiracy and that Jeff Davis was a conspirator, whose aim was to use the confederacy as a fulcrum with which he could operate against other sections of the country looking to practical dictatorship. Davis has sent a communication to the papers, in which he says Sherman's statement that he had written a letter to a gentleman, who is now a United States Senator, declaring he would turn Lee's army against any State that might attempt to secode from the confederation, is unqualifiedly fulse. The assertion that he had any purpose or wish to destroy the liberty and equal rights of any State, North or South, is a reckless and shameless falsehood. If Sherman had access to any letters purporting to have been written by him, which will sustain his accusations, he

Thus runs a despatch to the newspapers of the American continent this morning. Fully recogniz-ing the delicate mission of the representative, we would advise him to call at this office and peruse an article which went the rounds of the press and entitled "A City of Pretty Girls." He should also secure a copy of a Montreal society paper entitled Gossip and read its Quebec correspondence. His researches in the direction indicated will satisfy him that Quebec City is the fit and proper place to go, if he wants to bring his mission to a speedy and satisfactory conclusion.
