

of the army of the Mississippi, for the defense of our homesteads, liberties, and to resist the subjugation, spoliation, and dishonor of our people. Our mothers and wives, our sisters and children, expect us to do our duty, even to the sacrifice of our lives. Our losses since the commencement of this war, in killed, wounded and prisoners, are now about the same as those of the enemy. He must be made to atone for the reverses we have lately experienced. Those reverses, far from disheartening, must nerve us to new deeds of valor and patriotism, and should inspire us with an unconquerable determination to drive back our invaders. Should any one in this army be unequal to this task before us, let him transfer his arms and equipments at once to braver, firmer hands, and return to their homes. Our cause is as just and sacred as ever animated men to take up arms; and if we are true to it and to ourselves with the continued protection of the Almighty we must and shall triumph.

LAST GREAT WORK. Just Published, uniform with FATHER FABER'S other Works, Price in Cloth 75 cts.; Cl. Gt. Edges, $1.25.—By Mail, on receipt of the price in Gold, or P. O. Stamps.

BETHLEHEM, By Frederick William Faber, D. D. CONTENTS. Chap. I.—The Bosom of the Eternal Father.—Chap. II.—The Bosom of Mary.—Chap. III.—The Midnight Cry.—Chap. IV.—The first Worshippers.—Chap. V.—The Infant God.—Chap. VI.—Soul and body.—Chap. VII.—Calvary before its Time.—Chap. VIII.—Heaven Already.—Chap. IX.—The feet of the Eternal Father.

The Title and Table of Contents suggests the character of this work, which the Rev. Author designates in the following Dedication: "This Treatise on the Sacred Infancy of our Most Dear and Blessed Redeemer, is laid with the most Tender Devotion, the most Humble Confidence, and the most Reverential Worship, at the Feet of Saint Joseph, the Spouse of Mary, and the Great Foster-Father of our Lord." The name of the distinguished Author, whose Works have already become so popular in England and this country, as well as on the Continent, where they have been translated, and met with an immense sale, is sufficient to invite attention to this past production of his genius, learning and piety. Like Father Faber's other Works, it abounds in passages of rare learning, exquisite beauty, graceful imagery and most tender piety. To at least many of the 50,000 who have read his other Works, particularly his "All for Jesus" this last production of his genius, and still more of his deep, active love for that same ever blessed Saviour of men, will be a more than welcome visitor; an offering better than treasures of gold and silver; if any were at this moment, when thrones are crumbling, and actions are falling to pieces or being humbled to the dust, it is in the stable, and by the crib of the Babe of Bethlehem, that the proud and the wise of the world may learn the worth of the saying: 'Vanity of vanities, and all is vanity; except to love God, and to serve Him alone.'

UNIFORM SERIES OF FATHER FABER'S WORKS. In 8 vols. Demi 8vo. Cloth 75 cts.; Cloth, Gilt Edges $1.25 per vol.—The complete set done up in neat Paper Boxes, 8 vols. Cloth, $6. Cloth, Gilt, $10. The usual discount to the Trade, the Rev. Clergy, and others ordering in quantities. Upwards of 50,000 copies of Father Faber's Works have already been sold in this country, and the demand is constantly increasing?

BETHLEHEM. THE PRECIOUS BLOOD; or the Price of our Salvation. SPIRITUAL CONFERENCES. THE FOOT OF THE CROSS; or the Sorrows of Mary. THE CREATOR & THE CREATURE; or, The Wonders of Divine Love. GROWTH IN HOLINESS; or, The Progress of the Spiritual Life. THE BLESSED SACRAMENT; or, The Works and Ways of God. ALL FOR JESUS; or, The Easy Ways of Divine Love.

Universally esteemed as the Most Popular Devotional Works Published during the present Century. One of the most eloquent and distinguished clergymen in the United States, in writing an Introduction to one of Father Faber's Works, says: "We turn to this last work of the Rev. Dr. Faber with sentiments of gratitude to heaven, and hope for its abundant blessing on the teachings of such a guide, which our most earnest language would but faintly express. If the power to conceive and convey to others the sublime, and at the same time, the most practical truths that can interest the human mind, be a title to the homage of men, then has Father Faber established for himself a claim, which no length of years nor change of circumstances can efface. Few writers since the days of St. Francis de Sales, have made more Christian hearts bow in loving adoration before our tabernacles than the author of 'All for Jesus,' 'The Blessed Sacrament,' 'Growth in Holiness,' &c. Early orders respectfully solicited. MURPHY & CO., Publishers, Baltimore.

The following remedies are offered to the public—the best, most perfect, which medical science has afforded. AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS have been prepared with the utmost skill which the medical profession of this age possesses, and their effect shows they have virtues which surpass any combination of medicines hitherto known. They purify the blood, do more or less good; but this case shows that they are not only a powerful and safe cathartic, but an efficient and a power to speedily remove any thing which may have been accumulated, and moving the obstructions of the internal organs, and stimulating them into healthy action, they remove the humors of life and vigor, and health comes anew through the body, and the sick man is well again. They are adapted to diseases, and do not only for what takes by one in health, they produce little effect. This is the effect of medicine. It is antagonistic to disease, and no more. Tender children may take them with impunity. If they are sick they will cure them, if they are well they will do them no harm. Give them to some patient who has been prostrated with bilious complaint: see his bent-up, laboring form straighten with strength again; see his brow, lost appetite, and return; see the faded bloom blossom into health. Give them to some suffering whose foul blood has burst out in scrofula till his skin is covered with sores; who stands, or sits, or lies in anguish. He has been drenched inside and out with every potion which ingenuity could suggest. Give him these PILLS, and mark the effect; see the sores fall from his body; see the new, fair skin that has grown under them; see the late cancer that is clean. Give them to him whose agonizing humors have planted rheumatism in his joints and bones; move him, and he screeches with pain; he has been soaked through every muscle of his body with liniments and salves; give him these PILLS to purify his blood; they may not cure him, for alas! there are cases which no mortal power can reach; but mark the relief which crutches now, and now he walks alone; they have cured him. Give them to the lean, sour, haggard dyspeptic, whose gnawing stomach has long ago eaten every smile from his face and every muscle from his body. See his appetite return, and with it his health; see the new man. See her that was radiant with health and loveliness blasted and too early withering away; want of exercise or mental anguish, or some lurking disease, has deranged the normal organs of digestion, assimilation or secretion, till they do their office ill. Her blood is vitiated, her health is gone. Give her these PILLS to stimulate the vital principle into renewed vigor, to cast out the obstructions, and infuse a new vitality into the blood. Now look again—the roses blossom on her cheek, and where lately sorrow sat joy bursts from every pore; her cheeks are rosy, her eyes are bright, and her own, sickly features tell you without disguise, and painfully distinct, that they are eating its life away. Its pinched-up nose and ears, and restless sleepings, tell the dreadful truth in language which every mother knows. Give it the PILLS in large doses to sweep these vile parasites from the body. Now turn again and see the ruddy bloom of childhood. See the sweet infant, wasted with worms.
