GEMS OF THOUGHT ON LIFE INSURANCE.

Longfellow sang in the "Tales of a Way. side Inn," "All things come round to him who will but wait." Not so as regards a life insurance policy. But it is true as to death. That is worth a few minutes' reflection, to be immediately followed by action.

"The life insurance companies of the present day are something more than merely what."

"The life insurance companies of the present day are something more than merely what that name implies to the careless thinker. They are powerful engines for good. The pittances of the poor they care for with as much integrity as they stand back of the atrength and solidity of vast accumulations "Here is a good quotation which we fully endorse: 'We would not care two pins for the esteem of a man who fails to provide for the future of his wife and family on the absurd

A Broad-Minded Doctor.

RELATES SOME EXPERIENCE IN HIS OWN PRACTICE.

Believes in Recommending Any Medicine That he Knows Will Cure His Patients -Thinks Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a Great Discovery.

AKRON, Pa., April 24th, '95. Dr. Williams' Medicine Co.

GENTLEMEN,-While it is entirely con trary to the custom of the medical profession trary to the custom of the medical profession to endorse or recommend any of the so-called proprietary preparations, I shall, nevertheless, give you an account of some of my wonderful experiences with your preparation, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Fale People. The fact is well known that medical practitioners do not, as a rule, recognize, much less use, preparations of this kind, consequently the body of them have no definite knowledge of their virtue or lack of it, but soundly condemn them all without a trial. Such a course is manifestly absurd and unjust, and I, for is manifestly absurd and unjust, and I, for one, propose to give my patients the best treatment known to me, for the particular disease with which they are suffering, no matter what it is, where or how obtained. I was first brought to prescribe Dr Williams Pink Pills about two years ago, after having seen some remarkable results from their use. Reuben Hoover, now of Reading, Pa., was a prominent contractor and builder. While superintending the work of erecting a large building during cold weather he contracted what was thought to be sciatica, he having first noticed it one evening in not being able what was thought to be sciatica, he having first noticed it one evening in not being able to raise from his bed. After the usual treatment for this disease he failed to improve, but on the contrary grew rapidly worse, the case developing into hemiphlegia, or partial paralysis of the entire right side of the body. Electricity, tonics and massage, etc., were all given a trial, but nothing gave any benefit and the paralysis continued. In despair he was compelled to hear his physician announce that his case was hopeless. About that time his wife noticed one of your advertisements and concluded to try your Pink Pills.

He had given up hope and it required a deal of begging on the part of his wife to persuade him to take them regularly.

He, however, did as she desired, and if great appearances indicate health in this man, one would think he was better than before his paralysis.

"Why" caye ha "I began to improve in paralysis.

"Why," says hé, "I began to improve in two days, and in four or five weeks I was entirely well and at work."

Having seen those results I concluded that such a remedy is surely worth a trial at the hands of any physician, and consequently when a short time later I was called upon to treat a lady suffering from palpitation of the when a short time later I was called upon to treat a lady suffering from palpitation of the heart and great nervous prostration, after the usual remedies failed to relieve, I ordered Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. The result was simply astonishing. Her attacks became less frequent and also less in severity, until by their use for a period of only two months, she was the picture of health, rosy-cheeked and brighteyed, as well as ever, and she has continued so until to-day, more than one year since she

The Christian Guardian presents a creditable Christmas number. The cover is attractive and the contents seasonable. We notice that some of the regular departments have been omitted, in order, probably, to provide room for the extra Christmas reading. The editor contributes a paper on 'rowning's "Christmas Eve" There is the first part of a Christmas story by G. H. F., entitled, "Guided in the Prifting." A. D. Watson, M.D., writes a "Christmas Hynnn." E. W. Thomson's story, "The Eide by Night," is concluded in this issue. B. Gregory, D.D., contributes an interesting paper on a conversion of one of Lord Tennyson's earliest associates, Mr. Bernard Smith. There is a brief Christmas sketch by E. O. Y. A number of book reviews complete the leading features of this issue. tures of this issue.

Green Holly, a special publication edited by Mrs T. G. Marquis, has been received. It is published in an attractive form, with seasonable contents, and good illustrations. Among the contributors we notice several names well known in Canadian literature. There is a bright sketch by R. Lizars, entitled "In the Days of the Canada Company" Grace E l'enison is the writer of a short story, "The Religion of Jean Dundas." M. M. Watson contributes the narrative of a journey through Egypt. K. M. Lizar's writes a brief essay, "Phobia'in Crescendo." There is an illustrated article descriptive of "A Trip to Alaska." Besides the above, short stories are contributed by M. A. Fitzgibbon, Faith Fenton, A. M. Machar, A. R. Rolph, M. M. Scott, Mrs. E. W. Panton and Katharine McL. McKenzie. Green Holly is essentially Canadian in tone and sentiment, and does credit to all connected with it.
